The Editor's column

STUART R. PADDOCK

Because an editor can only have one 75th birthday, we feel like celebrating this week.

We might as well face facts. We have reached the oldster class when we are supposed to live in the past telling the present generation a few of the ups and downs we have either suffered or enjoyed.

This is a presidential election year — the 20th we have seen.

Here is an answer to the inquiry: "Why are you a Republican?" We joined the party because as a boy we liked elephants more than donkeys.

Our first vote was cast in the school, when the teacher wrote "one vote for Benjamin Harrison" on our ballot.

Our first comic was a colored picture in Puck which showed President Grover Cleveland on his knees proposing to Queen Lil of the Hawaiian Islands. She held out for a time, but finally said "yes" to Uncle Sam and the Islands became American possession.

Our next step into the political picture was in 1906. We were dressed as an Indian on a Woman's Suffrage float. We illustrated the fact that while Indians could vote, women were denied that privilege. The parade sponsored William McKinley for president.

While still not old enough to vote, we shook hands with Teddy Roosevelt in the old Auditorium hotel. He won our support and later our vote as we became a Bull Mooser.

We showed our loyalty to the party and cause by joining the Palatine Republican Marching Club. We wore a Rough Rider khaki uniform and with a flaming torch in place of a gun "charged" the Republican rallies of the area.

We have seen 3 major wars and several "police actions" in which thousands of boys were killed and few policemen.

We were too young for the Spanish-American war, but we prize a Springfield rifle supposedly used in the Cuba campaign—U.S. called it surplus at $1 each, bayonet included.

The first World War brought us woman's suffrage, but habit was so strong that the majority of the women of this area still wanted their husbands to do the thinking and voting for them—how they have changed.

Today's attacks on communism by the press are not much different from the William Randolph Hearst attacks on trusts (the monied interests) which he pictured as a dinosaur or other animal of prehistoric days.

We thought our parents were so dumb they never knew that we played Sunday baseball under an assumed name; or had a duplicate set of girl friends—one for church events; the other for Saturday night dances at Long Grove.

We know that the present day Thunderbird is not as exciting as a red-tired buggy, a girl at your side and horse reins wrapped around the whip socket as you had plenty of time to look at the moon.

Without a buggy, the stepping block was left—and enjoyed until at the early hour of 10, a voice from the house would say, "Time to come in, daughter."

What mother of today would dare issue such an order?

We remember the first auto race between Chicago and Milwaukee over the unpaved dusty Milwaukee avenue in the year 1894. Progress has thrown into the junk heap many of the electric railroad's that were considered so wonderful 30 years ago.

As the airplane has become an important means of transportation, we wonder what will happen when the steam engines become as obsolete as horse and buggy transportation.

Our mother made the statement 70 years ago that flying was one thing that God would never allow man to conquer.

Medical science has kept pace with new remedies for new diseases. Years ago vaccinations stopped smallpox. Today that disease is practically unknown and vaccinations have become a common preventive for many diseases.

Yes, we live longer, yet do we prize life as much as our parents did 75 years ago?

Medical science may have found ways to prolong life, but modern living has found ways to kill faster. We are asked to accept the slogan "Safe Driving," while motor manufacturers vie with each other to make cars that will go faster.

As our natal day rolls around for the 75th year, we have no worry about the future. We never had a sufficient amount of this world's goods for others to get excited about.

Somebody else will sooner or later take over and do a better job.

This column is not taking the place of an obituary story. We expect to still be writing editorially a few years hence — How many years? We are not even trying to guess.

If you have read this column to the end, you have been our guest at our 75th birthday party.

There may not be any ice cream or cake served, but you have our wish that you will someday be able to celebrate your 75th birthday and be entitled to tell your life story to the generation of tomorrow.

Exhibits, Shows, Prizes At 10th Annual 4-H Fair

Arlington Park is again a beehive of activity this week, as hundreds of farm and city youths bustle about preparing for the opening of the 10th annual North Cook County 4-H Fair Friday at 9 a.m.

Under the grandstand girls are busy erecting booths where they will display club projects in home economics, fire prevention and the like while out in the open all sorts of pens and cages were being readied to receive a collection of animals to rival Noah's.

EARLY THIS WEEK there were already 573 entries registered by 4-H members.

The largest number of entries is in poultry, 164, followed by sheep, 64; dairy, 62; swine, 60, and rabbits, 58. Gardening will show at least 56 entries.

There were fewer entries of pigeons, beef cattle, flowers, field crops, pheasants and various kinds of wildlife. Overall, a greater number of entries than last year is anticipated.

Most of the 250-odd rural 4-H youth in the northern half of the county will enter individual exhibits while the 600 girls belonging to home economics clubs will display both club projects and individual sewing and cooking handiwork.

CASH AWARDS totaling several thousand dollars, donated by the University of Illinois and the North Cook County Fair association, will be presented to exhibitors Sunday afternoon.

For the teen-age 4-H'ers the most thrilling spectacle of the fair will be the crowning of their king and queen.

Friday evening the identity of the king and queen, elected from among outstanding club members by the entire membership, will be revealed and they will be crowned by last year's royalty.

Again there will be 15 classes of events in the horse show, which will start at 9 a.m. Saturday and continue to 5 p.m. Four main classes are jumping, hunting, western and gaited. Last year 60 horses competed.

TO GIVE horse show spectators variety the 4 main classes of events will be run off in irregular sequence.

At 1 p.m. Sunday is the Great Lakes Navy Band concert, with the Great Lakes Navy Glee club coming on at 3:30. In between, the Black Troop, which includes a number of northwest area riders among its members, will perform at 1:30.

Awards are to be distributed starting at 8 p.m. and the fair will close with several hours of music and song by Jim Lounsbury, personable MC of TV's "Bandstand Matinee," and his new orchestra.

TWO ARLINGTON HEIGHTS LASSIES who will enter their cakes in the competition at the 4-H Fair this weekend tried out their culinary skills earlier this week. The girls, both members of the Sewing Susies 4-H club, are, left, Patricia Draut, 11, of 746 N. Belmont, and Carole Halstead, 12, of 830 N. State rd. It will be the first exhibition for each. —Staff photo

100-MPH CHASE; 4 DIE IN CRASH!

Youths Wreck Car After Wild Ride Through Suburbs

Four youths died early Wednesday morning when their car missed a turn at Grand and Lake aves., near Addison, spanned a 20-ft. ditch, crashed through a billboard and careened against a tree.

The wreck climaxed a wild race with police from Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Bensenville and DuPage county.

Dead are:

Roger Lawbaugh, 20, of 204 N. Bothwell, Palatine;

Larry Junius, 19, of 804 S. I-Oka, Mt. Prospect;

Harold E. Pflughaupt, 23, of 710 N. Highland, Arlington Heights; and Ellery Smola, 20, of 100 N. Elmhurst, Mt. Prospect.

An inquest was scheduled for 10 a.m. Thursday at Bensenville.

DuPage police said the boys apparently were not familiar with the intersection. Three of the youths were killed instantly, and the fourth died on the way to Elmhurst hospital.

Before it crashed, the car was careening through residential areas in 3 suburbs at speeds as great as 120-mph.

The speeders were first spotted by Arlington Heights police when the car pulled out of Rapp's Service station, Northwest hwy. and Euclid sts.

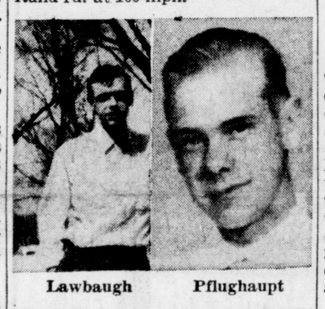
ARLINGTON POLICE chased them east on Miner, where the car ignored stop signs at Dunton, State and Douglas sts., north on Beverly where it ran the Euclid stop sign, and then east on Euclid.

Police abandoned the chase when Lawbaugh reached a speed of 120-mph on Euclid. He crossed Rand rd. at 100-mph.



Lawbaugh Pflughaupt

Junius

The 120-mph figure was verified by Bob Whisler, 802 S. Elmhurst, Mt. Prospect, a passenger in the car at that time. He left the car in Mt. Prospect and reported to police.

The chase subsequently was pursued by Mt. Prospect and Bensenville police. Both lost the fast car which was equipped with an apparatus which could extinguish rear lights.

DUPAGE POLICE said that 5 minors had been passengers in the car earlier in the evening. They included 3 Des Plaines girls aged 13, 14, and 15, and 2 boys from Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect. Their names were withheld.

Police said the 9 had consumed 7 six-packs of beer.

Lawbaugh is survived by his mother, Mrs. Fred Utterback, 116 S. Pine, Arlington Heights, a sister, stepfather, and his wife, the former Rose Schmidt of Palatine. He was employed at Knaack's garage and roomed at 204 N. Bothwell, Palatine.

Pflughaupt is survived by his wife, Delores, Arlington Heights; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pflughaupt of Palatine; and a brother and 2 sisters. He operated the H and G service station at 14 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights.

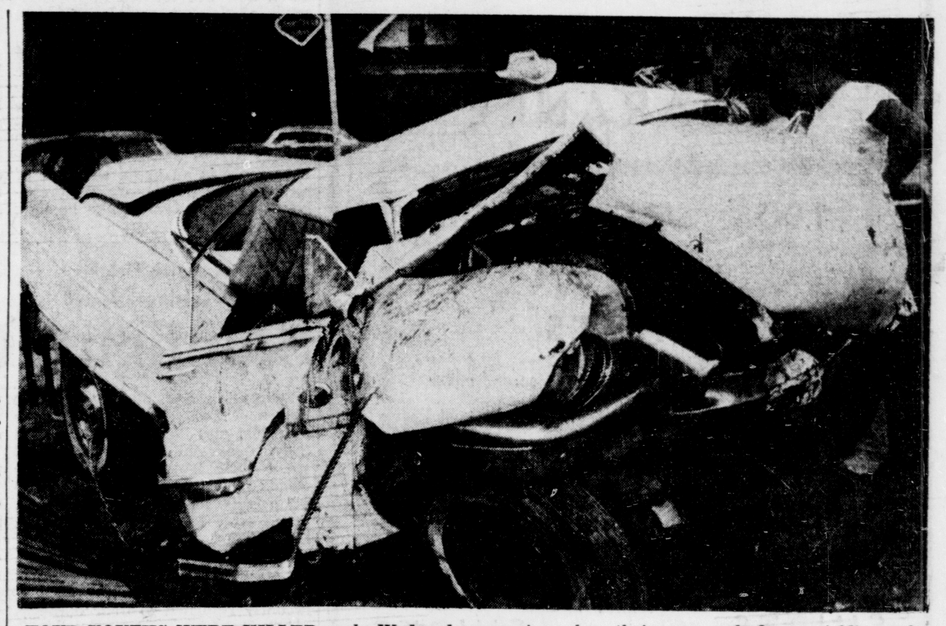
SMOLA was employed by his father, John K. Smola, as a bricklayer. He is also survived by his mother and 2 sisters.

Junius is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Junius, and a grandfather. Funeral arrangements are being handled by DeVriendt Funeral home, 2708 N. Western, Chicago.

He was employed by Jewel Tea in Rolling Meadows.

The wreck was DuPage county's worst traffic fatality this year.



FOUR YOUTHS WERE KILLED early Wednesday morning when their car crashed near Addison after a wild 100-mph chase by police from 3 suburbs and DuPage county. An inquest into the deaths was set for Thursday morning. —Staff photo

Free Chest X-rays

Free chest X-rays will be offered residents 15 years old and over, Thursday, August 16 when a mobile unit is parked for the second time this summer at the village hall, 101 W. Davis st., Arlington Heights.

X-raying hours are noon to 6 p.m.

First Polio Case Reported

The Northwest area's first case of polio in the current season was reported this week by Dr. John Hall, county health officer.

A 22-year-old Arlington Heights housewife was stricken with bulbar polio last Thursday. Saturday she was admitted to Cook county hospital. Her condition is reported as "serious."

DR. HALL said that the housewife had not received any shots of polio vaccine.

No other cases have been reported during the summer in the townships of Wheeling, Palatine, Elk Grove or Schaumburg.

There have been 3 other cases in the area during 1956, all in the spring.

Two of the cases were in Arlington Heights, a third in Mt. Prospect. All are well on the way to recovery now, it is reported.

ARLINGTON Heights cases reported in the spring occurred to a 23-month-old-infant, stricken with paralytic polio, and a 5-year-old boy, stricken with non-paralytic polio. Both had received vaccine shots.

A 3-year-old Mt. Prospect boy who came down with non-paralytic polio in April had not been vaccinated.

Plays With Cards

DOUG HOUGHLAND, one of the National Football League's outstanding linemen, was recently obtained by the Chicago Cardinals from San Francisco. Hogland and the Cards will play an intrasquad game at the Arlington high school field tonight (Thursday) starting time 8:30. Tickets may be purchased at the gate.

Arrest Teenagers After Two Accidents

Arlington Heights police last week arrested 2 teenage drivers, 1 of whom was driving without a license, involved in a pair of auto accidents.

Lee Schiel, 15, of 905 N. Highland, was ticketed for driving on the wrong side of the road. He was driving a southbound auto which struck a car parked on the east side of N. Dunton Saturday night. Schiel and 2 passengers escaped unharmed. Schiel was unable to produce a driver's license.

Sue To Block Hatlen Project

At presstime Wednesday Mt. Prospect village attorney Frank M. Opeka said Mt. Prospect was "about ready" to file a double suit against builder Rolf J. Hatlen and the Cook county registrar of titles, Joseph Ropa.

The decision came after Opeka learned that phase 3 of the controversial Hatlen Heights subdivision had been registered by the county under the Torrens system despite strong protest from Mt. Prospect and Arlingon Heights planning commissions.

OPEKA SAID HE HOPES the suit will be a joint action by both villages. However, he said that Mt. Prospect has given him authority to "go it alone" if necessary.

At stake is the constitutional right of villages to require subdividers to dedicate land for school and other public uses.

The suit, to be filed in circuit or superior court, will be aimed at 2 defendants.

It will seek to restrain Hatlen from selling additional lots in Hatlen Heights phase 3, and will seek to wipe off the registering of phase 3 from county records.

Early last month Mt. Prospect and Arlington Heights successfully blocked recording of the plat with the county recorder's office. Opeka said that the plat had been pushed through Torrens registration, another method of recording plats.

Railway, Village Near Final Agreement On Parking Lots

The village of Arlington Heights and the Chicago North Western railway are substantially agreed on a plan to meter local railway parking lots.

Only minor differences separate the 2, reported F. R. Buechner, village manager, this week.

He said that the railway backed down from its previous demands and came roughly to terms with the village at a meeting in Chicago last week.

Representing the village were Hugo Thal, village attorney, Trustee Robert Bishop and Buechner.

AT AN UNSCHEDULED, informal meeting Wednesday night, attended by a majority of the trustees, the board heard a report on the negotiations.

Thal was told to proceed, according to Buechner, on a draft of a contract calling for the CNW to receive 20 per cent of the gross income from the meters during the initial 3½ years of operation. After that the CNW's share will increase to a third of the gross.

In turn the village will allocate an estimated $3,700 for improvement of the 5 lots and install 180 meters. Rates will be 25 cents for 12 hours parking.

BUECHNER said that by a conservative estimate, the village's cost would be repaid in 3 years. Fifty per cent of gross meter income goes toward purchase of meters, costing $53 each.

The CNW had previously held out for a third of the gross at the start and it signed a contract on these terms with Mt. Prospect.

Arlington Heights will receive terms identical with those in recent CNW contracts with Barrington and Highland Park, Buechner declared.

Second Tax Rate Election Is Saturday

The second of a series of 3 elections to validate the existing maxium tax rates of district 25 will be held Saturday, August 11.

Voting will be from noon to 7 p.m. at the junior high school gymnasium.

Because questions concerning the technicalities of previous tax rate elections have been raised, the board of education of the public elementary schools, district 25, decided to hold a series of 3 referendums to validate the present maximum rates of $1.125 for the educational fund and $.1875 for the building fund.

SINCE THE LAW permits the educational tax rate to be raised only 21 cents at a single referendum and since it was found advisable to start with a rate of 50 cents, one more referendum after the one August 11 will be required. This will be September 1.

The board of education pointed out that these election will not raise the present maximum tax rate of the district, but are conceived to follow strictly the legal procedures for reaffirming the present rates.

Army To Transfer Missile Headquarters To Arlington

Headquarters for all the army's Nike guided missile units in the Chicago area will be transferred from Chicago to the missile station at the former Arlington airport, probably within a year, the army revealed this week.

Millions of dollars will go into expansion of facilities and new construction at the Central rd base, added the army.

Some of the permanent buildings to be erected are a headquarters structure, a theater, officers' club, chapel, field house and barracks to house hundreds of GI's. Plans for the first buildings to be erected are now on the drawing boards and construction is expected to begin this fall.

HEADQUARTERS for the 45th Anti-Aircraft Artillery brigade, which includes all Chicago area units, now are located at the Museum of Science and Industry on Chicago's south side.

A spokesman for the army said that a prime consideration in the selection of the site for the new headquarters was the fact that the federal government owns the property, estimated at more than 200 acres.

As there is an acute shortage of rental housing for married personnel, provision for family housing will be made.

The property has been federally owned since shortly before World War II. It was used to train naval aviators during that war and later was leased as a private air field and trailer camp.

THE ARMY took over the airport in January, 1955, following legal action necessary to evict trailer camp tenants. It became operational as a guided missile base in June, 1955.

Two batteries of the 86th AAA Missile battalion and a battery of the 78th AAA Missile battalion make up the station complement. Normal strength of a missile battery is 100 men and 8 officers.

Before they arrive at the Arlington Heights installation, the men who man the Nike receive training in missile maintenance and firing at Fort Bliss, Tex. They gain additional technical experience at the station in an on-the-job training program and once a year each battery is given practice in actual firing at a missile range in the Southwest.

MUCH OF THE firing equipment had a thorough check on the White Sands (N.M.) proving grounds before shipment here. This is necessary as obviously Nike guided missiles are never fired from their on-site positions except in event of enemy attack.

The Nike, named for the Greek goddess of victory, is a liquid-fueled anti-aircraft missile, approximately 20 feet long and about 1 foot in diameter. It has 2 sets of fins for guidance and the missile and its booster weigh slightly more than 1 ton.

The missiles which are seen by motorists driving along Central and Algonquin rds. are of the Nike I type. (Nike I has an effective range of about 25 miles and a top speed of more than 1,400 miles an hour.)

However, a missile with far greater capabilities is now under development by the army. Brig. Gen. Daniel A. O'Connor, special assistant to the commanding general, army antiaircraft command, declined to guess when it might be ready for use during a recent swing around Midwest missile installations. He visited the local station July 20.

Nike B, now being developed, has been unofficially reported to fly half again as fast and twice as far as Nike I.)

Alert Passerby Saves Child From Accident

An alert pedestrian averted a possible tragedy Tuesday morning when he noticed a 2-year-old boy sitting on the pavement between cars parked along State rd. in Arlington Heights.

The pedestrian, Albert E. Duenn, 411 N. State rd. ,picked up the boy in front of the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan and carried him to safety.

NEARBY DUENN saw a group of youngsters who had been corralled by Mrs. Ted Fonfara, of 303 N. State. The 5 children, said Mrs. Fonfara, were lost, and the 2-year-old belonged with them.

Police finally got a name and learned that the children all lived in the 1000 block on N. Douglas.

None of the 3 mothers of the children, a pair of 2-year-olds, three 4-year-olds and a 6-year-old, knew that they had wandered nearly a mile from home.

Sales Tax Monies Spent On Streets

Months ago, when the half-cent municipal sales tax proposal was being batted around by the village board, there were suggestions that all revenues from the tax be used to pay for widening of arterial streets. But when the tax was finally passed, the ordinance provided only that the funds would go "for public works."

NO SOONER had the village heard that it had earned some $6,000 in receipts for the first month the tax was in effect (April) than the board voted to spend some of the money.

At the final July meeting the board voted to spend $1,792.50 in sales tax money for the reconstruction of the intersection at George and Belmont sts.

It passed unanimously.

Sidelights Of Arlington Heights

Swimming and playing on the shores of Lake Michigan was the way Mr. and Mrs. Earl Genn and their 8-year-old daughter, Carole, spent their 2-week vacation. The Genns stayed at a resort in Shorewood Hills, Mich., and while there, took Carole to visit the interesting Deer Forest.

Now residents of Arlington Hts., Mr. and Mrs. John Keyes and their sons, Jonathan, 8, and David, 6, recently returned to their home at 344 S. Bristol after an enjoyable 2-week vacation in Wisconsin. The Keyes stayed at Fish Creek in Door county where they enjoyed fishing, swimming and golf. They had phenominal luck fishing 1 day when they caught the limit in less than an hour. Highlight of their vacation was a visit to friends on Washington Island where they were entertained by the Peninsula players who presented "Dear Charles," and "Reclining Figure." The Keyes moved to Arlington Heights from Beverly Hills, Chicago, and unlike a Fence Post contributor, they truly feel that this is the "City of Good Neighbors."

Mrs. H. C. Harper left Monday for her home in St. Petersburg, Fla., after a 10-day visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Peery, 504 S. Beverly lane. Mrs. Harper was guest of honor at a coffee August 1 given by her daughter-in-law, with neighbors as guests.

To North—New England

Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Precilio and daughter, Sara Jane, 739 S. Dunton ave., returned recently from a week at Lake Lawn lodge, Lake Delavan, Wis.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Muench and children, Dean, Janice and Gregory, 102 S. Dunton ave., Friday, Aug. 3 completed a 2-week vacation trip during which they toured Canada and the New England states. In Canada they headquartered at Quebec City, Que., and in Maryland they visited briefly at the home of Col. and Mrs. Jack Hayes.

Summer Activities

Mr. and Mrs. John Kruk and children, John Jr. and Nancy, 1010 N. Mitchell ave., are home following a 2-week trip to the northwest, where they vacationed at the Black Hills, Yellowstone national park and Glacier national park.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Meyer and children, Kenneth, Pamela and Janis, 705 N. Vail, returned here Saturday from a week at Van Auken lake, Hartford, Mich.

Peggy, Hirons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Hirons, 1020 N. Chestnut, spent last week in Chicago visiting at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Denten.

Mrs. Fred Siemro and daughter, Donna, returned recently from a vacation trip to Miami Beach, Fla. While in Florida, they visited the Fred Luethje family, former residents of Arlington Heights, now living at Lakeland. Enroute home they stopped also in St. Louis, to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Russell, Des Plaines, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Anderson, Arlington Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Rogers, Palatine, entertained Saturday, Aug. 4, at the site of their future homes on Wilmette ave., Palatine, Pony rides, games, movies, and dancing to a 6-piece orchestra was enjoyed by all.

Plenty of Zip at a pip of a price
(It's a great time to buy a Buick!)

SERIOUSLY—where else can you get so much snap and ginger at such a peach of a price?

Where else can you get a big, high-powered, steady-riding hardtop like this '56 Buick Riviera—at a figure that's pretty close to what they're asking for similar models of the well-known smaller cars?

Nowhere else that we know of—which is one big reason why Buick outsells all others cars in America except two of those smaller cars.

BUT RIGHT ALONG with low price is something else behind Buick's big success: Buick is a lot more automobile for the money.

It gives you more room and luxury—more zip and power thrill—fine handling and sure-footed stability.

And it gives you something you can get in no other car—today's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.* It's the only transmission in the world with the cruising thrift and the switch-pitch safety-surge taken from the modern plane's propeller.

SO WHY WAIT any longer—when the time to take action is now, so you can start enjoying all the golden months of summer and fall in a new '56 Buick?

Now—when Buick prices are as low as—perhaps lower than—they'll ever be again.

Now—when your present car is at its peak of worth—and when today's high volume '56 Buick sales permit us to make you an even better trade-in allowance.

Come see us—and look into the car that puts you years ahead right now.

Come see us today—and discover the dilly of a deal that will make you wonder why on earth you waited as long as you did.

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.*

Your Suburban GOVERNMENT

By Tom Brennan
And Dick Dunkel, Jr.

Because the Forest Preserve has been making headlines recently in its campus-controversy with the University of Illinois, this week's column aims to acquaint readers more thoroughly with the work and responsibility of the Cook county forest preserve district.

The Cook county preserve is part of a state-wide network of preserve districts which control about 40,000 acres of land at present, and have been authorized by the state legislature to increase their holdings to 50,000 acres.

Cook county's district is presided over by the county board of 15 commissioners headed by president Daniel Ryan.

Since September, 1916, the forest preserve has been pursuing its objective of giving the people of Illinois islands of recreational wooded area in the midst of spreading subdivision development and industrial expansion.

IN ORGANIZATION set-up, the Cook county forest preserve is divided roughly into 6 major departments—conservation, clean stream, engineering, maintenance, forestry and ranger.

The conservation department is the largest. Among its projects designed to familiarize urban and suburban residents with nature are outdoors field trips, workshops, summer schools, day camps, adult education programs, teacher training classes and other activities to promote general interest in conservation and nature study.

The district maintains the Little Red Schoolhouse in the Palos preserve at 104th ave., as a museum for the conservation and nature study program. The reconditioned schoolhouse serves as a nature center with displays of plant and animal life common to the area. In summer an estimated 1000 people each day visit its displays and walk the maze of trails through surrounding weeds.

Also under supervision of the conservation department is the fish management program which attempts to maintain a population of the most desirable kinds of fish in the miles of forest preserve streams. Servicemen and children under 16 may fish the streams without a license.

The forest preserve's clean stream department is attempting to clean up stream pollution caused by residential and industrial waste and make the preserve's 125 miles of river banks ideal for picnicking.

Working through 5 watershed committees, and assisted by conservation and civic groups, sources of stream pollution are sought out, investigated and reported to law enforcement agencies such as the State Sanitary Water board, county Department of Health and the Sanitary District of Chicago for correction. Legal action through the office of the Attorney General or the State's Attorney is required in some cases when voluntary cooperation is lacking.

UNDER THE engineering department come several engineering divisions, such as the Salt Creek division which covers the area around Palatine. In 1955 the Salt Creek division supervised construction of storage buildings, picnic shelters and other preserve construction in the area.

The maintenance department's main responsibility is keeping up the district's 180 major picnic sites which include over 600 fixed tables and accommodate thousands of picnickers each year. Most popular picnic site in this area seems to be Busse forest, corner of Higgins and State rds.

Also under maintenance department supervision comes the district's 3 swimming pools—Wheaton, Cermak and Green Lake — which attracted over 14,000 swimmers during one hot day in 1955. (B7

Barrington Outlaws Milk Vending Machines

An ordinance outlawing milk vending machines was passed by the Barrington village board last week.

Officially, the measure was approved on grounds that sanitation and refrigeration could not be adequately supervised by village inspectors but a Barrington observer pointed out that there had been a number of complaints that the machines had not functioned properly.

TWO LAKE county communities have passed identical ordinances. They are Round Lake and Lake Zurich.

A lawyer for one of the communities has questioned the legality of the vending machine ban but apparently the law has not been tested yet. (B7

Tell Plans For Rebuilding U.S. 12 As Super Highway

Illinois pleasure-seekers fleeing to Wisconsin lakes on U. S. 12 will drive on a toll-free, 4-lane highway from the Wisconsin line northward in a few years.

Under an agreement recently approved by the Illinois and Wisconsin highway commissions, a new, relocated U.S. 12 will be built from Genoa City on the Wisconsin-Illinois line to Hudson on the Wisconsin-Minnesota line.

Included in the plan is a provision to eliminate from the interstate highway system highway 51 between Madison and Beloit and substitute for it the new U.S. 12.

APPROVAL FOR the change is expected soon from the federal bureau of public roads in Washington, D.C.

Thus northbound motorists will get a free super highway built to the highest construction and safety standards along the general route of the cross state toll turnpike which was found to be not feasible nearly 2 years ago.

This project was dropped in 1954 after it was determined that traffic would not pay for construction costs.

Funds provided by the 33 billion dollar highway bill passed by congress in June will pay 90 per cent of the cost. The state of Wisconsin will pay 20 milion dollars, the federal government 180 millions.

Madison to Hudson. The section south of Madison to the Illinois-Wisconsin line will have a lower priority.

A Milwaukee newspaper story said that the new U.S. 12 would connect up with an Illinois expressway but officials in the Chicago office of the Illinois highway commission had not heard of any plans for such an expressway. No plans for reconstruction of U.S. 12 in Wisconsin have been announced. The Tri-State expressway to be built by the Illinois Toll Road commission will meet the Wisconsin line some miles east of Genoa City. (B7

Hovels Of Homeless Aided By CARE Refugee Campaign

There are thousands of homeless children and their parents still living a hopeless existence in crowed camps and hovels throughout the free world.

To bring concentrated supplementary help to the neediest among them, CARE has launched a $1,000,000 spring-through-summer Refugee Campaign.

Victims of wars and oppression and political upheavals, the refugees for whom CARE seeks assistance stretch from Europe to Asia and the Middle East. The urgency of their plight is mirrored in reports compiled by refugee authorities:

EVERY MONTH, West Berlin and Germany receives at least 20,000 new escapees from East Germany and nearby satellite countries.

In Greece, 15,000 war and political refugees are unable to support themselves.

In South Vietnam and South Korea the number of destitute refugees from the communist northern areas of those divided countries runs into the millions.

Israel, the nation founded as a haven for refugees from religious persecution, has 350,000 persons — 20 per cent of the total population —on government-assistance rolls.

Of 667,000 Red China refugees in Hong Kong, 100,000 are totally without earnings.

Throughout Egypt, Lebanon, Syria and Jordan, over 900,000 Palestinian Arab refugees are in dire

INITIAL construction on U.S. 12 will be on the segment north of straits.

THROUGH THE CARE drive, contributions from Americans—as individuals or as members of professional, employee, business, civic and other groups—will provide relief and self-help packages to supplement existing aid programs for these and other refugee groups.

Depending upon local refugee requirements, the packages include food, blankets, clothing fabrics, plows, farm and vocational tools and educational supplies, ranging in cost from $1 units of U.S. farm surplus to $90 sewing machines.

Contributions in any amount, or requests for full information, should be sent to "Refugee Campaign," CARE, Chicago. (B-10

Zone Board Urges Denial For Fessler Farm Appeal

Arlington Heights zoning board Thursday recommended that a request for rezoning of a 3.8-acre parcel of land from a farming to commercial zoning be refused.

The village board decided to lay the matter over to the next meeting as the owner could not attend the Tuesday meeting to voice his appeal.

The zoning change was sought for a triangular parcel adjacent to the Chicago & North Western railway right-of-way northwest of the Euclid ave. crossing and south of the tracks.

The property was formerly the Fessler farm but has been owned by Arthur F. Thiersch, 1108 W. Euclid, for about 10 years. Thiersch said he had sold off lots along Euclid ave. for homes and sold a barn now used as a bottling plant by the Meyer Brothers dairy.

THIERSCH MAINTAINED that he has been unable to sell the remainder of the property because of the proximity of the railway, the odd shape of some portions and the lack of street access.

Residents of the area put up a strong fight against rezoning. Their spokesman, Joseph J. Hohmann, 1007 W. Euclid ave., submitted a petition carrying signatures of 25 neighbors protesting rezoning.

Hohmann said that a similar move to rezone the property had been beaten down back in the '40's and argued that rezoning now would cause the value of residences to fall.

OTHER NEIGHBORS declared that Thiersch had told them, at the time he sold them property, that the barn was to be torn down but that before they moved into their homes, the barn had been sold.

Hohmann, a peppery man who said he had been fighting against rezoning since moving to Arlington Heights 13 years ago, admitted that he himself is a salesman.

Thiersch said that he had no definite plans for development of the property.

Physicians Seek 24 Hour Phone Service System

A group of Arlington Heights physicians are considering establishment of a joint 24-hour telephone answering service

First step is selection of someone to operate the service from their home. The arrangement would be a permanent one, with service available 24 hours a day.

ILLINOIS BELL Telephone co. has volunteered to train and prepare whoever is selected.

Such a service is now successfully operating in Des Plaines. It was initiated 6 years ago by a handicapped woman who began serving a few local physicians. Today she has 33 and has also offered to train an inexperienced person interested in the project.

The financial return is satisfactory and may eventually be sufficient to permit hiring of a relief operator.

PURPOSE of the preliminary announcement is to solicit applications.

Paddock Publications, as a public service, has agreed to forward written applications to the committee of physicians. Address letters: "24 Hour Service," c/o Paddock Publications, Arlington Heights.

Sixteen Area Scouts To Attend Training Camp

Sixteen selected young men from Northwest Suburban Council will embark Saturday for Mortimer Schiff scout reservation, operated by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, at Mendham, N. J.

Upon their arrival at the reservation, they will be joined by other young men from across the United States for the National Junior Leader Training camp conducted by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

THE YOUNG men, their Units, and communities are:

John Kenny, Tr. 11, Park Ridge; Bruce MacKenzie, Tr. 24, Park Ridge; Richard Sandberg, Tr. 2, Park Ridge; Richard Logiurado, Tr. 15, Skokie; Richard Kroon, Tr. 43, Skokie; Malcolm Rice, Tr. 31, Skokie; Ralph Perricone, Tr. 18, Arlington Heights; Robert Ehlert, Tr. 25, Des Plaines; Oscar Sander, Tr. 43, Des Plaines; James Traver, Tr. 7, Arlington Heights; George Sawyer Jr., Post 23, Mt. Prospect; Richard Clarke, Tr. 66, Arlington Heights; John Peterson, Tr. 23, Mt. Prospect; Donald Carlson, Post 68, Arlington Heights; Sam Harkness, Tr. 10, Barrington; Wayne Wagner, Tr. 35, Lake Zurich.

Selection of these young men was based on their scouting background, their desire to be of service to younger Scouts, personalities, and recommendations of their scout unit leaders, school and church authorities.

Selection was made in the 5 districts of the Council by the Northwest Suburban Council Leadership Training Committee, Arthur E. Fink, chairman.

WHILE AT THE camp, they will learn about scout camping, scout unit program planning, activities, water safety, hiking, nature, and scout unit program enrichment.

Upon their return, they will serve as faculty members for the district junior leader training week-ends which will be held in each of the 5 districts of the Northwest Suburban council.

Cost of this training experience is being borne by the boys themselves, the sponsoring institutions, and the Leadership Training program of the Northwest Suburban council. (B7

Chaplin Warns: Courts Wrecking County Zoning

The public service committee of the county board has recommended that the entire county be rezoned.

Commissioner Charles F. Chaplin said that zoning in the county is "breaking down and individuals are bypassing the county zoning board of appeals and the county board in going directly to the courts, who are permitting them to do what they want."

CHAPLIN SAID the reason for this is that present zoning laws are not valid, and individuals, mostly representatives of heavy industry, go ahead and do what they want on the land.

Commissioner John Duffy suggested the county board follow Chicago's example on zoning in hiring an outside agency to rezone the county.

Board President Daniel Ryan said at the next meeting he will recommend a committee be appointed to study the problem and recommend to the legislature that zoning laws be tightened.

NEXT WEEK Paddock Publications will publish a special report on the problem of zoning in unincorporated areas, including details of Chaplin's charges. (B7

Illinois Cancer Drive Tops Record Goal Here

The American Cancer Society, Illinois division, topped the highest goal in its history Wednesday when the 1956 Cancer Crusade reached the $1,451,376.07 mark against a $1,450,000 target.

Announcement of the signal victory was made by Drummond C. Bell, state campaign chairman.

He paid special tribute to thousands of volunteer Crusaders throughout the state and who made it possible for the society to reach a new milestone in its efforts to strike back at cancer through research, education and service. (B7

Chow Time Chit-Chat

LYLE DEAHR

We have had a lot of good comment on the "Specials" we offer each week and that makes us real happy. Most of the specials that we have offered have been of the Sandwich variety, so this week I'll try something new. Our regular patrons seem to like the idea of our offering specials, as it helps them to decide what to eat. Eating out most every day sometimes gets a little monotonous, so each week we'll try and help you with some suggestions. It is our earnest desire to serve good, wholesome food at prices you can afford.

Here is a complete 7-course dinner that we have featured for several weeks and we're going to feature each and every Monday.

$1.65 — "Armour's Star Pork Tenderloin — $1.65

You can't buy finer products than Armour's and all of our meats carry their label. With this 7-course dinner, here's what you get. Your choice of Soup or Tomato Juice, Pork Tenderloin, French Fries or Hashed Browned Potatoes, our Chef's Tossed Salad (Your choice of 3 dressings — 1000 Island, French or Garlic) dessert and a cup of our Famous Coffee. By our standards of today here is one big bargain and it's real good food. Here's a chance, Dad, to take Mom and the kids out for dinner and it won't cost you a small fortune. Let the kids have a sandwich and one of our thick malteds that is chuck full of vitamins.

Wish time permitted my being in the restaurant more, as I'd like to meet all you wonderful people personally; however such is not the case. If you like our food, our prices and the way you are served, tell your friends. If there is anything you don't like, tell me — 'cause it is my job to see that you get the best at the Stagecoach Snack Shop. Remember those hours we maintain for your convenience, 7 a. m. until 12 midnight — for that delicious breakfast or a late snack, we'll be there to greet you. Give us a try Today, huh.

Round 'n About Westgate

Westgate Community Association

A special board meeting was held last Wednesday evening to officially incorporate the association whereby the charter was adopted and all actions taken to date by the unincorporated association were adopted. The present by-laws were adopted officially and the charter was turned over to the secretary.

Vacations

Luanne Tierney, 101 Yale, and her daughter, Debbie, have just returned from an extended vacation taken while her husband, Tom, was out of town on business. They first visited Debbie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Elliott, in Partyville, Wis., and then journeyed to Springfield, Ill., to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. Garver and Mrs. D. Elliott, great grandparents.

Marge Santelli, 409 Yale, and her 4 children have just returned from a 4-week vacation in Waseca, Minn., where they visited Marge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Thornby. Frank spent 5 days in Minnesota with his family and then returned to Westgate. Mrs. Thornby came back with Marge and is going to stay here for a visit.

Canada, Yellowstone National park, the Black Hills and then Wisconsin was the vacation route followed by the Herda family, 234 Yale. Cleta, Ray and their children, Ray and Carol, spent an enjoyable 2 weeks driving from on spot to the other and even 'camping out' here and there when the weather permitted.

Caroline and Dick Burkett, 1405 Euclid, enjoyed a 3-week vacation in Reading, Penn., along with their 3 children and 'Sweetie Pie', their boxer. They also visited Caroline's grandmother in Wildwood, N. J.

Newcomers

A welcome is extended to Pat and Dan Shannon, 1504 W. Fremont. The Shannons came to Westgate from Kansas City, where they had lived only 6 months before Dan's transfer to Chicago. They are originally from New York. Pat and Dan have 2 children, Patricia, who is almost 2, and Danny, 6 months. Dan is a technical representative for Union Carbide & Carbon of Chicago. Pat is a graduate of the College of New Rochelle and Dan from Fordham university, both in New York state. The family will attend Our Lady of the Wayside church here in Arlington.

George Patrick, infant son of Dorothy and George Stefani, 204 Yale, was christened July 15 in Our Lady of the Wayside church. Godparents were Celeste Switalla of Westgate and Robert Cecchi of Chicago. A dinner party was held for the family and friends after the christening.

Visiting Bert and Andy Graczyk, 1417 Fremont, this past week were Andy's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Switaj of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Rose Corey of Chicago.

Recent guests at the Santelli home, 409 Yale, were Dr. J. A. Cosgriff and family of Olivia, Minn. who were on their way home after spending 3 months in Europe. Marge's sister, Mary Ann Thornby of Minneapolis, was also a guest in Westgate for a short time.

Happy Birthday

To Susie De Rosa, who celebrated her sixth birthday July 29. Friday an afternoon party was held in her honor with 14 neighborhood children joining in the festivities. Susie is the daughter of Dolores and Frank De Rosa, 235 Yale.

Skip Akerlund held a small party for his wife, Joyce, last Friday as a pre-birthday celebration. Sunday the Akerlunds and Esther and Al Gebhardt spent the day at Tam O Shanter golf club enjoying the tournament and later had dinner at Simonini's in Algonquin.

This 'N That

Jeanne and Ed Huster, 1411 Fremont, entertained 7 couples last Saturday evening. The girls have all been club members since they attended high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mrozinski of 1512 St. James pl. entertained Mr. and Mrs. William F. Winters of River Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Larmay of Norwood Park, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Elke of Glen Ellyn and Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Mrozinski of Westgate and their families Sunday. The guests were invited for a barbeque supper and a card party later in the evening.

An afternoon coffee was held for Pat Shannon by this reporter last Friday to acquaint her with some of the girls living nearby. The Young Republicans from Arlington Heights have asked for two volunteers for the forthcoming election, who will be in charge of the Westgate area. Anyone interested may call this reporter for further information.

Eastwood Events

The Eastwood bridge committee again invites any resident of Eastwood who would like to participate in this next seasons bridge tournament to contact Dorothy Raasch, CL. 3-7312. In order that scheduling for play be in players' hands no later than September, it is necessary to include new members this week. Also available is a substitute listing, and should any couple desire to be placed on such a list, the committee would welcome calls.

Birth

Congratulations go to Bob and Gertrude Kanouse on the birth of their daughter, Margaret Kathleen, born Sunday, August 5. Margaret weighed 8 pounds 6 ounces. Awaiting her arrival in their home, 215 N. Brighton, is brother, Andrew Robert, 2½ years old. Paternal grandmother is Mrs. Margaret Kanouse of Sturgis, Mich. and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bala, Cicero.

Recuperate

Recuperating at his home, 622 N. Dryden, is Arthur Magnussen, after having been confined to St. Francis hospital for 5 days. Mr. Magnussen broke his arm and surgery became necessary. Neighbors and friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Association president, Norm Hoym, had a freak accident last Saturday when he hit his head while washing windows resulting in 8 stitches having to be taken.

From Tuscaloosa and a visit at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Watson, 603 E. Euclid, are Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Atkinson.

Weekend guests in the home of Charlie and Gladys Laue, 1020 E. St. James, were Mr. and Mrs. James McCullom and daughter, Janet, and Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Kincaid and son, Stanley, all from Louisville, Ill.

Curt and Dorothy Kenyon, 313 N. Brighton, houseguested Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith of Milwaukee last weekend.

Vacationers

Returning from Big St. Germaine Lake, Wis. were Mrs. Glenn Johnson and Mrs. Foster Travis. Grayce and Doris enjoyed 4 days at Lofty Pines lodge.

The Richard Evans family, 215 N. Beverley lane, returned Saturday after a flight trip to Pittsburgh last week, where they visited Dick's father, John Evans, and other relatives.

Returning to their home, 214 N. Beverley, from Scotia, N. Y. were Mrs. Claud Leet and children, Claudia, Steven and Christopher. Eleanor enjoyed a 5-week visit there with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Barth.

John, Claire and sons Bobby, Johnny and David McPherson, 501 N. Douglas, returned Saturday after a week's vacation at Tilden resort in Eagle River, Wis.

Honky-Dory Farms resort at Balsam Lake, Wis. can claim a 2-week stay from another Eastwood family. The Nuernbergers, George, Lois and children, Jo Ann and Larry, returned to their home, 740 N. Beverley, last Saturday.

Diane Fill, 9½, of 642 N. Beverley and Barbara Buschart, 11, of 622 N. Beverley are spending this week at Lake Geneva Youth camp.

This kind of advertising is rather interesting, because you receive so many comments. The other day I was talking to an acquaintance of mine, and I asked what he thought of this column. I thought he put it rather succinctly when he said, "It's for the Birds." Another one of my readers summed it up when he said, "Your business must be going to the Dogs." However I was somewhat cheered when another friend said, 'I think it's the Cats." Well that's the way it goes, but believe it or not, it did give me an idea for a column that I had intended to write.

We have a small department in both of our stores devoted to the "Small Animal Kingdom," and I think it's rather important. We have many things that animal lovers find they need and of course our hours give you more time to shop for what you want. We stock all the repellents for dogs and cats, foods, toys, shampoos and small harnesses. We have food for your "Feathered Friends" and many other things that you need in their daily care. To many of you it will seem like something rather unimportant, but to those of us who love pets, it is important to know where to go for the things we lavish upon them. We are attempting to bring you all the things that you will need when you visit one of our locations; items that you will see and can pick them up while you are doing your other shopping.

When I was a kid we always had some pet around the house, and I have always been fond of all kinds of animals. There is something so sincere about a pet; a love and devotion that is hard to find; that is one reason so many people always have had and always will have some pet to help them spend lonely hours.

Hope this will be of help to many of you and that you'll give us a try, the next time you need something for your pal. Say, the store in Dunton Court will remain open all day Wednesday until 9 p. m. for your convenience.

He was a Democrat.

And he came to stay.

The Democrat was Herbert Paschen, candidate for governor, who said he felt very much at home in Mt. Prospect—"I've been a suburbanite for 17 years."

But Candidate Paschen, despite this bond, was still a stranger to northwest suburbs in his role as Democratic campaigner in an area which has been safely tucked in Republican hip pockets for more than half a century.

PASCHEN'S VISIT, following closely on the heels of Richard Stengel, senatorial aspirant, was the second phase of what suburban Democrats describe as an "active" bid to woo the "new vote."

"I intend to do a lot of campaigning in the suburbs," declared Paschen, county treasurer at present. "The suburbs, now comprising a quarter of the total vote in Cook county, are the key to this election."

DISCOUNTING Republicans' safe assertion that suburbia is still sewed up, Paschen said the accelerated influx of new residents and a "change of attitude" among older residents had all but killed the monochromatic character of suburban politics.

The candidate was guest at a lawn party for 300 persons at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Gillogly, 7 N. Pine, Mt. Prospect.

Paschen said the most important issue in the campaign as far as suburbs were concerned was the school problem.

Although admitting that he saw no way to reduce rising real estate taxes, he insisted that more state support for school construction must be forthcoming.

He said he favored a revolving school construction fund similar to the one approved by the legislature but vetoed by Gov. Stratton.

IN ADDITION, Paschen said developers and subdividers must be willing to assume some responsibility for schools burdened by their projects.

"I would recommend legislation, if necessary, to insure that such a responsibility is properly met," explained Paschen.

He added that donation of school sites should be compulsory and he also praised the practice of cash donations per home.

"A smart subdivider," said Paschen, "realizes that he's creating the school problem, and he's willing to help alleviate it. If he doesn't, the school suffers, and his sales suffer, too. People don't want to buy a home in an area of substandard schooling."

PASCHEN exuded considerably more confidence this weekend than he had earlier in the campaign. This was probably due to the Hodge scandal which has rocked Gov. Stratton's administration in recent months. (ACM

High School Nurse Receives Commission

Mrs. Ivah T. Hufnagel, nurse in charge of Health services at Arlington high school, has received an appointment as a commissioned officer of the public health service by the U.S. Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

She was commissioned assistant nurse of the reserve corps on July 27, 1956.

The commissioned reserve of the Public Health service is being expanded and reorganized for service in grave national emergencies.

The reseve is expected to be built up to a strength of at least 5,000 officer-physicians, dentists, sanitary engineers, nurses, and specialists in allied professions—in order to better meet the nation's defense and other emergency needs.

Only professional personnel are eligible to the commissioned reserve. (ACM

Oldsmobile's Experimental Car To Be Shown At Fair

Visitors to the 10th annual 4-H Fair at Arlington Park race track this weekend will have an opportunity to see the Cutlass, Oldsmobile's experimental car.

The Cutlass is a 2-passenger model embodying a unique concept of the closed sports coupe. It will be displayed in the booth of Ladendorf Motors, Inc., of Des Plaines.

ROAD HEIGHT of the car is only 51.5 inches with a wheelbase of 110 inches and an overall length of 188.5 inches.

Each tail light is recessed in a cone. There is no outside deck lid, access to the luggage compartment being reached from inside the car.

The recessed seats are swiveled to permit easy entry or exit and there is also a radio-telephone. The rear window features an unusual glass treatment with louvers on the surface of the pane, giving a Venetian blind effect while allowing full visibility through the rear view mirror.

PETE WEINGART

PEOPLE WISE MARTINIZE

Say, that giving away FREE cleaning and pressing didn't hurt so much, but confidentially I'm glad I don't do it every week. I'm sorry so many of you called late with the answer to our question, but it was just available to the first ten. We'll have another question in about two weeks, and the same deal will prevail, so don't you be late for this one. I guess we had to turn down about fifteen or twenty people, so maybe next time we'll boost the number of FREE cleanings up a little.

About a month ago we made an offer to you gals on a "Special" of cotton dresses. It appealed to all of you and all of you have asked us to repeat it. If there is something that our customers want, and it is within our power to give it, we'll do it. Here's that offer repeated again, so don't let it get by this time.

We'll clean and press and SIZE any Cotton Dress for the regular price of just Cleaning and Pressing; which means it costs you just $1.25, you SAVE $.75. Most of the ladies like their cotton dresses with a light starch or sized, to give them that fresh, clean look. Now you can save yourself $.75, and have that favorite cotton frock cleaned, pressed and sized for only $1.25. This offer is available to all and will remain in effect for one week.

All of our cleaning is done by the famous Martinizing Process, which makes this an outstanding value. Many others offer specials, none but Dunton Court Cleaners can offer Martinizing. Say, the next time you bring some garment into our place, why don't you go in the back and ask Pete, the manager, to show and explain just what happens to your clothes. I'm pretty sure you'll find it interesting and I know you'll agree it is the finest method available. Bring in those cotton dresses, ladies, and get the "Special" while it lasts. Others have bragged about it and we're sure you'll like it also. Don't forget that question in about two weeks. So long for now.

Our Saviour Bible School To Open Monday At Dryden

A 2-week session of daily vacation church school will begin Monday morning at Dryden school, Rockwell and Dryden, Arlington Heights, under the sponsorship of Our Saviour United Lutheran church. Classes will be held each weekday morning through August 24, and a program including worship, handicrafts, play periods and other activities will be centered around the theme, "The Bible and the Home."

Mrs. Roland Sorgatz, director, and her staff of teachers have prepared a study program which will develop "The Bible and the Home" theme by comparing modern homes with the home life of Jesus as he was raised by Mary and Joseph in Nazareth. A missionary study of the home life of the American Indian is also part of the study program.

Classes have been arranged for children 3 through seventh grade, and will be taught by the following instructors: nursery, Mrs. Kenneth Machecek, Mrs. Albert Roggenbuck; kindergarten, Mrs. Robert Hult, Mrs. Walter Krueger; primary, Mrs. Harry Wickstrom, Mrs. Gust Hermanson; junior, Mrs. John Petersen, Mrs. Robert McReynolds.

Beginning at 9:30 each morning of the 2-week period a worship service will be conducted by the Rev. John P. Petersen, pastor. Following the worship service, the pupils will separate for their study courses, which will include special handicrafts under the direction of Mrs. Carl Zehner, instructor.

Assisting Mrs. Sorgatz with administrative duties will be Mrs. Charles Logie, Miss Donna Quigley and Mrs. Orville Anderson, who will help with record-keeping, finances, refreshments and other incidental work connected with the school. No registration fee will be asked from the pupils, a voluntary offering being taken at the opening worship services to defray the cost of workbooks, supplies, and audio-visual rentals.

Final program of the church school will be held Friday evening, Aug. 24, at 7 p.m. Parents and friends are invited to come at this time to see a display of the handwork made during the sessions and participate in a program by the pupils.

Enrollment is not limited to members of Our Saviour church, and all children of the community are invited. (A

'Boom Towns' Jams Local Post Office

Rolling Meadows has never stopped growing!

So venture Arlington Heights postmaster, Virginia F. Dodge, and Casey Kujawski, whose job it is to direct the casing of mail addressed to 1,687 families who receive daily service by carrier.

DECLARED Kujawski: "I don't know how many more are still using general delivery, but it keeps me busy changing the routes so that proper delivery can be safe!"

Rolling Meadows city clerk, Mrs. Eda Zimmerman, estimates t today's population is nearly 7000. It was 5600 last October.

If her estimate is accurate, Rolling Meadows is already larger than century-old Palatine—and the new city was started only 3 years ago!

ARLINGTON Heights' post office is required to provide Rolling Meadows with its mail service. Six carriers are now employed in serving the city while total postal employees working in the Arlington office now number 55.

A larger, more adequate and modern post office to serve the 2 growing communities has become mandatory.

But alas, where and when it will come, that's anybody's guess! (AF

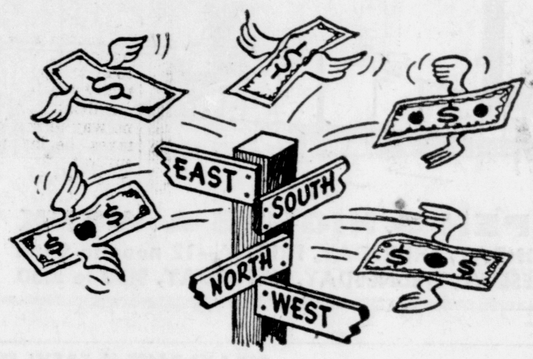
Nine Polo Clubs In National Tourney

Nine polo clubs, including Mexico's famous Gracida Brothers, will compete in the National Twenty Goal Tournament which opens Sunday, Aug. 12, at Oak Brook and Milwaukee.

Detroit—CCC, the current national champions, will be pitted against Mexico at Oak Brook. The match will open at 3 p.m. on the International Field, York rd. and 22nd st., weather permitting.

On Aug. 16 the victor of the Mexico—CCC contest will meet Solo-Brandywine in Milwaukee.

On Aug. 15 California-Midwest meets Oak Brook at Oak Brook. The victor of this round will play the winner of the Aug. 16 Milwaukee match in the semi-finals at Oak Brook on Aug. 19.



GONE FOREVER!

Those dollars you send out of town are going to be missed these days. Spent at home they help pay our taxes, support our churches . . . make the community a better place in which to live and raise a family.

Invest in prosperity by doing business with those you know and trust. Remember, nothing ever paid greater dividends or more handsome returns than loyalty to your home town.

YOUR KITCHEN—10 degrees cooler—

WITH A NEW ELECTRIC RANGE!

The happiest surprise a woman gets with her new electric range is that her kitchen stays cool in hot weather . . . even if the oven's on for hours!

The reason: a modern electric range keeps your kitchen about 10 degrees cooler. Why? It keeps the heat in the oven where it belongs.

But electric ranges offer many other advantages. Today, nothing cooks faster! And many have thermostat-controlled surface units that put an end to pot watching. And they are cleaner to cook with. Your kitchen stays about twice as clean.

You'll also find scores of "new idea" features. There are automatic roast meters, French-door ovens, built-in rotisseries, and many more. See them now at your electric appliance dealer's. Find out how easy it is to have a modern electric range in your kitchen.

Big saving—we pay part of your range installation cost!

Need modern wiring? We share the cost with qualified home owners in 1, 2 and 3-family dwellings.

And you get more than a money saving!

Modern wiring helps improve your TV picture, brightens lights, makes everything electrical work better. You can also install a 240-volt electric dryer, water heater or air conditioner quickly and cheaply. The Share-the-Cost Plan is available on terms of up to 2 years.

Mrs. John K. Auld, 1009 Watling, entertained her circle members and an extra guest at a picnic supper Tuesday night. Two of the ladies present displayed samples and patterns of gifts to be made for the bazaar to be held in September at Lake Bluff for the benefit of the Methodist orphanage there.

Visit College Friends

Jim and Charlotte Ronayne, 1011 N. Kennicott, spent last weekend visiting college friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Korbecki and family in Rock Hill, Mo. While there they drove over to Forest Park to the outdoor theater to see "Kiss Me Kate."

The George E. Burlingames, 914 W. Elm, have just returned from a week in Minneapolis, where they were visiting her family.

There was another party for Nancy Coffman August 1 given by Mrs. R. E. Peck Jr., 1141 N. Harvard, and Mrs. Charles L. Johnson in her home at 626 S. Belmont. Also honored at the party was Miss Ellen Wilson of Mt. Prospect, who will be married the same day as Nancy.

Newcomers

Newcomers to Arlington Heights are Mr. and Mrs. John Strong and their 3-year-old daughter. They have moved from Chicago to 912 Salem ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Stasch took their 3 small sons to Lake Geneva for the weekend.

The Arthur Leus are back in town after spending 2 weeks in Florida visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Thelen of N. Miami. On the way down they stopped at St. Augustine to do some sightseeing.

Another visitor to Lake Geneva was the William Moehle family, 911 N. Kennicott. They visited childhood friends, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Huk, at their cottage there.

Ken Friker, son of the Eugene Frikers, 713 N. Patton, was lucky enough to get a job as parking attendant at the Tam-O-Shanter golf club. He has been able to see some of the tournament going on now.

Returning

Mrs. Ellen E. Marquiss, who lives with her daughter Mrs. Glenn N. Buckley, 1404 W. Elm, is returning from a 3-week vacation in California. Most of her time was spent in and around Los Angeles, however, she went up to San Francisco to board her train for home.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy H. Stoehr, 736 N. Kaspar, just came back from a vacation, which took them to Minnesota for a week of fishing and then up to Canada for another week and a half. Fishing was good, they said, and even young Doug and Dick caught some, but they didn't bring a single one back!

Wayside Ice Cream Social August 12 To Benefit Convent

An old fashioned ice cream social is the first event of the season for the school committee of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Womans club of Arlington Heights. It will be held in the parish hall Sunday, Aug. 12, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Rourke, chairman of the committee, has appointed Mrs. Edmund O'Brien to take charge of the social, with Mrs. John Lawlor and Mrs. Stanley Poznan assisting.

Because of its past popularity, the ice cream social has become an annual event. Proceeds this year will be used to help furnish the newly-built convent. (A

Parents To View Bible School Handwork At Closing Program

Faith vacation Bible school will conduct its closing exercises at the church, 431 S. State rd., Arlington Heights, Friday, Aug. 10, at 10:30 a.m. Two hundred forty boys and girls have participated in the program, "Gods Children Pray," during the past 2 weeks.

The following have served as superintendents of the various departments: nursery, Ernest Ross; beginner, Mrs. Paul Michaels; primary, Mrs. Richard Wilke; junior, Mrs. John Manz; senior, Mrs. Edgar Behrens; hymn study in all departments, George Schrader; junior art projects, Mrs. Jack Wiese, assisted by Mrs. William Streger and Mrs. Elmer Behnke. Over 50 teachers and workers contibuted time and ability to make the school a source of pleasure and benefit to many children and their homes.

The closing program will consist of songs, recitations, prayers and other activities which were daily features. The children's handwork will be on display in the various departments for viewing by parents and friends. Refreshments will be served to the children and their guests on the church lawn.

Dorothy Hauff Named As New Welcome Lady

Mrs. Conger, who has welcomed newcomers to Arlington Heights and Rolling Meadows since the inception of that service, will leave September 1 to make her home in California.

Her place will be taken by Mrs. Dorothy Hauff, who from time to time has substituted for Mrs. Conger.

THE WELCOME service is celebrating its fifth anniversary this month. Records show that Mrs. Conger has made, up to the first of August, 2,673 calls in Arlington Heights and 1,542 calls in Rolling Meadows.

The families of newcomers in Arlington Heights increased the population by 9,450, Rolling Meadows 5,401.

Nine new businessmen became members of the Chamber of Commerce this week. The chamber is in the midst of a promotion program that is paying off in many ways.

A credit bureau is being planned. An impetus is being given to the parking problem and efforts are being made to secure sites for industrial firms.

Forest View School

Kindergarten

Due to the lack of enough children available for enrollment in a kindergarten at Forest View school this year, the committee has suspended plans until next year. The committee would appreciate information on children ready for kindergarten in September 1957. Please call Mrs. Robert Palmer, CLearbrook 5-4828.

Splash Party

A splash party was held for the Up and Doing 4-H club at the E. K. Keller home Wednesday, July 25, after the county achievement program. The girls and other guests swam from 4 to 10 p. m. enjoying the under water lights in the pool after dark. The lawn was decorated with Japanese lanterns and barbecues and sodas were served by the refreshment committee. Afterwards the Kellers treated with watermelon, hot dogs, German potato salad, cold cuts and coffee. The girls thank the Kellers for the party.

Theatrical Group

Summer Stage players, a group of high school and college students who have been organized by Miss Penelope Pearne this summer, started rehearsals on their first theatrical production, "The Importance of Being Earnest" August 1. The meeting before rehearsal was held Tuesday at the home of Miss Pearne and ended with a swimming party in the Luczak pool.

The cast, under the direction of Tom Hawk, is as follows:

Gwendolyn, Jan Davenport; Cecily, Karen Baker; Miss Prism, Judy Moehling; Lady Brackness, Marge McCarron; Algy, Barry Walsh; Jack, Tom Farrand; Dr. Chasabule, Bernie Lalor and Gladys, Mary Jansen.

The public is asked to reserve Friday, Aug. 24, and Saturday, Aug. 25, to see this new group in its first production.

County Thwarts Plan For Campus In West Suburbs

Proposed plans by University of Illinois to build a Chicago campus on west suburban forest preserve land met another stumbling block in action by the county board Monday.

Commissioners, sitting as members of the finance committee of the forest preserve board, recommended awarding of contracts for earth work and drainage to improve the Miller Meadows preserve.

THE COMMITTEE action apparently precludes University of Illinois trustees from acquiring the tract as a Chicago division of the university now located at Navy pier.

The trustees have never officially asked the forest preserve board for the site but have issued publicity releases saying they desire the property for that purpose. (B7

Final Concerts At Grant Park

Grant Park concerts, presented by the Chicago Park District each summer since 1935 for the enjoyment and relaxation of thousands of Chicagoans, will come to a close Sunday, August 19. There will be four concerts the last week with a slight variation in the usual schedule; instead of a Saturday concert there will be a Thursday program.

Joseph Rosenstock, distinguished conductor of international fame, will direct all four concerts. The Wednesday, August 15, symphony program will have the overture to "The Merry Wives of Windsor" by Nicolai, and Beethoven's Symphony No. 7 in A major as the orchestral numbers. (Bill

Kaspar St. Players Give Second Benefit

Children of N. Kaspar st., Arlington Heights, last week, presented their second benefit show for the proposed Northwest Community hospital fund. The musical play, "Trip to India," was given August 3 in spite of the rain which dampened stage settings in the back yard of the Vernon A. Jensen home, 935 N. Kaspar.

Last month the children contributed their profits from the play "Black Beauty." Profits from their latest effort totalled $3.80 which they turned over to the hospital fund.

Children who organized and participated in the benefit musicale were Patricia McGrath, Patricia Leu, Robert McGrath, Richard Pilip, Donald Martin, John Huskey, and Susan Leu. (A

Supreme Session Of Job's Daughters To Be Held August 15-18

August brings 2 big events for girls in Bethel 23, Order of Job's Daughters. The first was the semi-annual exchange night August 3 and the other is the annual supreme session of the order, to be held in Milwaukee Aug. 15-18.

Bethel 23, which meets in the Park Ridge Masonic Temple, includes girls from Norwood Park, Edison Park, Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Mt. Prospect and Arlington Heights. Miss Paula Meyer, is honored queen and Mrs. Neta Sullivan, 7411 W. Catalpa av., Chicago, is guardian of the bethel.

Exchange night work was conducted by the officers of Bethel 32 of Jefferson Park, headed by Honored Queen, Rae Marcia Buckley. Later in the year, officers of Bethel 23 will return the visit and conduct the meeting in the hall of Bethel No. 32. Exchange nights help to broaden friendships between the girls of the various chapters.

The Order of Job's Daughters includes girls from 12 to 20 related to Masons and members of the Order of Eastern Star.

Plan Boat Display At 4-H Exhibits

For the first time, the 4-H Fair industrial exhibits will include a boat display.

The exhibit will be sponsored by Ace Boat sales of Palatine and include the largest pair of oars in the midwest, an 8-ft. replica of a Johnson outboard motor, 4 color sound films on fishing and boating, as well as free literature and balloons for children.

The 10th annual fair opens Friday for 3 days at Arlington Park race track.

New Approach To Educational Problems Urged

Supt. Ralph E. Clabaugh of Arlington Heights elementary schools recently attended an educational conference at Teachers college, Columbia university, in New York.

He was one of 42 superintendents of schools from across the nation who recommended a 5-point education program to help "keep America strong and advance the full scientific, social and economic potential of all the people."

THE PROGRAM is part of a charter adopted by the school officials at the end of the conference sponsored by the college's department of educational administration.

Five recommendations were:

1—The United States must make available an adequate part of its national income to education—this may require "an entirely new approach to school finance."

2—A full-time education must be given to every child.

3—The teaching profession must be made more attractive to more able people so that every child will have a competent teacher.

4—Larger numbers of lay citizens and educators must work together to improve education.

5—Research must be recognized as basic to better education.

"WHILE AMERICA is developing its natural resources and spending huge sums for material goods, it must not neglect its most important resource of all— the child," the charter stated.

There were 2 other superintendents from Illinois at the meeting.

News Of Prospect Meadows

Progress is being made in the construction of head walls for the Rand rd. entrance to Prospect Meadows. Glen Ehlke, engineer in charge of the project, reports very good cooperation on the part of Meadowites in generous donations of materials for the head walls and he hopes when the time comes for the needed labor the men of the Meadows will be just as generous with their time.

Talent Show

Meadowites and their friends are reminded to keep the afternoon of August 19 free so they will be able to attend the talent show in the Prospect Meadows park. The committee has been successful in lining up a very entertaining show, which no one will want to miss. Among the many acts will be Pat Riley's Small Fry Fashions. Approximately 15 girls from the Meadow's kindergarten set will model dresses featured in catalogs and information will be given on prices and names of catalogs. Make plans now to attend the show.

Birthdays

Gail LeBrun, daughter of Ray and Joyce LeBrun, was the hostess at a luncheon at her home to celebrate her seventh birthday August 1. Her guests were playmates Barbara Hemesath, Marsha Wells, Nancy Murdock, Denise Thirlwell, Candy Wadle and her sister and brother, Judy and Ritchie.

The evening of August 3 Ann Cody was pleasantly surprised when guests arrived to help her celebrate her birthday. Her mother-in-law, Mrs. Catherine Coughlin, had arranged the celebration without Ann's knowledge and keeping the secret with her and enjoying birthday refreshments were the following guests: Warren and Irene Spaulding, Ray and Dorothy Doyle, Marie Thrall, Shirley Seymour and Boots Norris and her sister, Gloria Fromme.

August 4 was the date that Timmie Derning, son of Joe and Gert Derning, celebrated his seventh birthday. Joining him for an afternoon at the theatre were his playmates Tommy Hemesath and John McGivney, his cousin, Jim Driscoll of Chicago, and friend, Paul Stearnberg of Glenview. After the movie the boys were joined by Dennis Kamps and Nancy and Susie Hoglund for birthday refreshments at Timmie's home. The same evening Joe and Gert entertained the following relatives and friends at a birthday supper for Tim: Mrs. Mae Henke, Mrs. Katherine Derning, Bruno and Marge Bubis and sons, Jimmy and Gary, Sam and Mary Stearnberg, Howie and Jean Kamps and Skeets and Joyce Hoglund. During the evening the guests were entertained with home movies.

Christening

Steven Hoglund, baby son of Skeets and Joyce Hoglund, was baptized July 22 in St. Mark Lutheran church in Mt. Prospect. His sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stuhlfauth of York City. After the ceremony Skeets and Joyce entertained Mrs. Carl Hoglund, Mrs. Frank Szafran and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stuhlfauth, their weekend guests, with dinner in their home.

Dinner guests of Skeets and Joyce August 5 were Mr. and Mrs. William Forhning, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoglund and Mr. and Mrs. Vernor Forsberg, who recently returned to this country after spending 2 years in Sweden.

Wedding Anniversary

Ralph and Helena Woodruff celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary August 1. Upon returning home from the anniversary dinner in the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Jim and Dorothy Cassie of Mt. Prospect, they were surprised by the members of the Grandmother's club, who came to present them a gift and serve them coffee and cake. Club members present were Myrtle Stickrod, Janet Nye, Elizabeth Gutzmer, Frances Schulz, Catherine Coughlin, Edna Vartanian and former member, Orvilla Daley.

Softball Game

Evan Wells, manager of the Little League Giants, participated in a softball game between managers and coaches of Arlington Heights north and south side Little League teams August 4 at recreation park. The north side proved to be the better team winning by a score of 21 to 8, however, the south side, with their comedy and horse-play, bedecked in shorts, cowboy hats and miss-matched socks, put on the best show.

Lou and Lynn Nye entertained friends, Jack and Chris Pelletier, Don and Rosemary Finch and Perry and Marilyn Peregrine, at a patio party at their home Saturday evening.

Dick and Elaine Tanney were among the guests at a family gathering at the home of Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tanney at Wonder lake Sunday. Members of Dick's side of the family enjoying the picnic supper on the lake were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. William Mullins and son, Mark, and Mr. and Mrs. Calrence Guthaus. Present from Elaine's side of the family were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Loewecke, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Loewecke and children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Loewecke, Mrs. Sam Samuelian and Mrs. Emma Grams.

Cub Scouts

John Harland planned and conducted a trip to the Chicago Uptown district fire house for members of cub scout den 13 August 2. Accompanying him on the interesting excursion were scouts Wayne Harland, Jay Chaiser, Tommy Seymour, Jim Kandul, Billy Cody and guests, Terry Harland and Larry Richardson. Lt. Jerry and Lt. Jack showed the boys around the fire house and gave them a short ride in the fire truck.

A block picnic planned to be held on an empty lot on Albion lane Sunday wound up at the home of Andy and Kay Bischoff because of threatening weather. All the families in the block were invited to attend but only the following were able to be present: the Ralph Woodruffs, the John Harlands, the Jack Richardsons, the Bob Kleins, the Richard Soduskis, the Andrew Splithoffs, the Bill Knellers and the Herb Wadles.

Rita Durec entertained friends and neighbors with a plastic demonstration party in her home August 2. Her guests were Irma Ehlke, Lee Abbinanti, Kay Sepke, Ruby Polly and her mother Mrs. Pearl Jost, Gert Derning, Jean Kamps, Millie Webber, Marge Murdock and Pat Wrath. After the demonstration the guests were served coffee and cake.

From July 29 to August 4 the children of Chuck and Rita Durec, Michael, Chris and Cathy, were guests of cousins Wayne and Greg Krall in Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Crain and their children, Linda and Martin, spent their week's vacation on Sunday lake in Minocqua, Wis. Weekend guests of the Crains during July were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Winans of Baltimore, Md. and W/O and Mrs. Harold E. Johnson of Albuquerque, N. M.

Vacationing

Paul and Elaine Leonhardt, their son, Sonny, and daughter, Elaine Bennet, and her daughter, Susan, spent their 2-week vacation on Sand lake, Hayward, Wis. Enjoying their vacation with them in a cottage next to the Leonhardts were friends Mr. and Mrs. R. Readers and son, Ronnie, from Elmwood Park. The families dined at the Hayward lumber camp, saw Indian pow-wow dances in Hayward park, visited Deer park and caught their share of fish, with Paul coming up with the prize catch, a 23½ inch walleyed pike.

Lake Kawaguesage in Minocqua, Wis. was the site Bert and Joyce Ruther chose for their week's vacation. Bert and Joyce and their children, Valerie and Chipper; and Bert's mother, Mrs. Helen K. Ruther, spent the week boating, fishing and swimming.

Irv and Vi Manda returned Sunday from a week's vacation at Tabors farm in Sodus, Mich. The Mandas participated in the many activities planned for the guests at the farm. Recently Irv and Vi spent a weekend in Green Bay, Wis. at the home of Vi's mother, Mrs. Laura Madsen, to attend a birthday celebration for Erik Madsen.

House Guests

Guests in the home of Glen and Irma Ehlke last week were 2 of Irma's sisters from Wisconsin, Miss Lenora Smith of Neenah and Mrs. Mildred Uttendorfer of Shiocton. Ricky Ehlke accompanied his aunts back to Wisconsin for an indefinite stay with various relatives.

Arriving August 3 to spend a month visiting John and Mary Jane Norris and their children was Mary Jane's sister, Mrs. Gloria Fromme of Pittsburgh. She will be joined later in the month by her husband and they plan to enjoy their first vacation in Chicago together. Recently John's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Norris visited with the Norris family for 3 weeks.

When Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Murdock, Bill Murdock's parents, arrived July 31 to visit the Murdock family, Bill and Marge's 2 daughters, Marily and Peggy, returned home with them. The girls had been visiting their grandparents a few weeks at their home in Cleveland, Ohio. Since Bill was on vacation last week the family enjoyed many outings together, visiting Brookfield zoo, O'Hare field and Deer Grove park.

John and Jane Harland's house guest last week was John's cousin, Johnny Dale of Herrin, Ill.

Elaine Johnson and her children, Kenny, Ricky and Joyce, are following a very busy schedule this week entertaining guests Jimmy and Larry Sickels, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sickels of Chicago. Monday Elaine took the children to O'Hare field with trips to Brookfield zoo, Hawthorne Mellody farm and swimming parties planned for the remainder of the week.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Doubleday & Company, one of America's oldest and most famous book publishers, have inaugurated a splendid series of 12-inch long-playing records devoted to the best popular music and performed by gifted young artistic personalities who are refreshing to hear after the deluge of what, for want of a better term, we call "commercial sludge."

Previous Doubleday releases (issued under the label of Dolphin Records) have highlighted such excellent items as "Nancy Walker's deliciously humorous song recital "I Can Cook Too" (in which the song "Irving" is worth the album's cost by itself), Greta Keller in "Twelve O'Clock," and Portia Nelson in "Autumn Leaves." This new Dolphin 12-incher is "Love-Julie Wilson." The young lady in question is one of the stars of "Pajama Game," the longest running musical hit on Broadway.

SHE WAS A night club star famed for sultry singing long before that, and her vivid personality and admirable projection of songs come through ideally on this very well reproduced platter. She sings Cole Porter's "From This Moment On" with a languorous ease and intimacy that sets the mood superbly, and follows through with Rodgers and Hart's "He Was Too Good to Me" and "There's So Much More," as well as their great "Why Can't I," "You've Got Me Crying Again," that great old Isham Jones classic, pinpoints her candid, close-up way with a blue mood song, while her pert way with "Sugar" and "Travelin' Light" as well as Phil Moore's witty "Pagliacci Has Nothing on Me," shows what she can do with topnotch material in the lighter vein. Moore, by the way, did the arranging and conducting. A superb disc! Dolphin discs can be ordered through any record or book shop. They're real hi-fi, too!

"Our classics recommendation for this week comes from Columbia, another proof of Goddard Lieberson's brilliant enterprise in contemporary and American music. It pairs the "Symphony 1933" and Seventh Symphony by Roy Harris, one of our most powerfully eloquent composers. The former work, performed by the Boston Symphony under the late Serge Koussevitzky, was called by this great conductor one of the most original and important contributions to music by any American musician; the Seventh Symphony, laconic and dramatic, is magnificently performed by the Philadelphia Orchestra under Eugene Ormandy in spectacular hi-fi sound. This album belongs in your permanent collection as a highly rewarding musical experience! (G

Parties

A block party was held last Saturday night in Barbara and Les Polken's yard, 1208 N. Race. Attending were Edith and Ted Larson, Louise and Wally Gordon, Kay and Don Jacobsen, Phyllis and Charlie Marshall, Elaine and Bill Petrucci, Connie and Rex Mc Bride, Jo and Bob Hult, Margaret and Don Walters, Maxine and Shel Mells, Joan and Harry Stevens, Polly and Charles Millhouser, Dorothy and Gene Dominque, Jen and Bob Kline and Nancy and Dick Quinn.

Nancy and Milan Vocick, 1448 N. Yale, held a party July 28. Neighbors enjoying the affair were Joanne and Kenny Herrmann, Olive and Bill Balow, Marilyn and Bill Owen, Sue and Bill Behrens, Bunny and Bill Reinhardt and Charlotte and Les Bang.

Home

Doris and Arnold Silver, 1247 Chicago, and Doris' mother, Mrs. Bernie Wolf, and their children enjoyed a trip to Madison last Sunday. The family visited an aunt, Mrs. Osterveer, of that city.

Jerry and Bill Rix, 1244 N. Chicago, and their 6-month-old daughter, Jill, returned July 28 from their vacation. Bill spent 2 weeks with the national guard at Camp Ripley, Minn. He is a lieutenant in the national guard. Jerry and the baby spent the time with Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rix of Chicago, at a cottage in Hazelhurst, Wis. Bill joined the family for a week.

Lucille and Bill Frankie, 1243 N. Wilke, returned Friday from a 2-week vacation at International Falls, at Raney lake near the Minnesota-Canadian border. They were accompanied by their 2 nieces, Joy Wons of Buffalo and Patty O'Neill of Los Angeles, who have both been spending summer vacation with the couple.

Herb Trowe, 1240 W. Chicago, and Bradley, 3½, spent a week's vacation at Ephriam, Wis., where they stayed with Herb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Trowe Sr., of Chicago, at their summer home.

Grace and Lloyd Abbott, 1251 Chicago, took a business and pleasure trip last week through Wisconsin. Kathy, their 2-year-old daughter, proved to be a good traveler. On their return they picked up their boys, Bobby and Ricky, from Trump Lake lodge, a boys camp in Wabeno, where the boys had had a month's vacation.

Jen and Bob Kline, 1710 W. Oakton, enjoyed a visit from friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Learned and children, Mike, Dan and Jane, from Toledo last week.

New Arrivals

Thomas Patrick McCoy was born July 31 in Mercy hospital, Chicago. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon McCoy, 1444 N. Yale, and weighed 8 pounds at birth. The baby has twin sisters, Kathleen and Maureen, 2½, and a brother, David, 1.

Melanie Ann Clarkson was born July 9 in Resurrection hospital. She is the daughter of Carol and George Clarkson, 1259 Chicago, and she weighed 6 pounds. Melanie has an older sister, Cheri, 3.

Anyone who has a 5-year-old child and is interested in starting a kindergarten in Virginia Terrace is urged to call Joan Johnstone at CLearbrook 3-8904 or Jackie Koenig at CLearbrook 5-0287.

John Johnstone, captain of the Virginia Terrace baseball team, CLearbrook 3-8904, is interested in getting more players for the team or substitutes for this year and is making plans for a team next year. The team will play in our own recreation park next year. Anyone interested is asked to call Mr. Johnstone.

Arlington Heights Plans Expansion Of Post Office, 4 Acre Parking Lot

LOCATION OF PROJECTED 4-ACRE PARKING LOT

Plans to enlarge the Arlington Heights post office and acquire a 4-acre south side tract for off-street parking for hundreds of shopper and commuter autos were announced at the board meeting Tuesday night.

Post office plans were revealed as a realtor asked for a rezoning hearing for 2 lots adjoining present property at the rear.

The lots, with a combined frontage of 132 feet on the south side of Wing st. are owned by E. R. Ackerman. A change from residential to commercial zoning will be asked.

THE 4-ACRE TRACT fronts on S. State rd. opposite Sigwalt and extends east about 3 blocks to the Chicago North Western right of way.

The frontage on State rd. is 144 feet but the property widens in the middle and narrows down at the east end. It is about 1170 feet deep.

The property was purchased from Nicholas Lattof, local automobile dealer, and John Randag, 623 N. Highland, for $91,500. One residence stands on it. As signed contracts were presented at the board meeting, apparently purchase was authorized at an informal meeting of the parking committee (to which all trustees belong) last Wednesday night.

VILLAGE ATTY. Hugo Thal proposed a $240,000 bond issue to finance both the State rd. lot and the recently-acquired lot between Vail and Dunton for $108,000.

Total cost of acquisition and development of both lots would be $335,000. The $95,000 portion not covered by the bond issue might come from businessmen's donations, parking meter revenues on hand, annexation fees or money given in lieu of dedication, it was suggested.

After taking 18 months to complete the Vail-Dunton lot purchase, the board acted with record speed on the State rd. lot. A trustee said the land was offered for sale several weeks ago.

Financing and sale of bonds will be decided at an adjourned meeting next Monday.

IN OTHER MATTERS, the board:

Opened bids on a 1,000-gallon pumper and on equipment for spraying for Dutch elm disease and tree sanitation and referred bids for study.

—Heard a Scarsdale resident complain that his telephone had been ringing constantly since the first case of Dutch elm disease in the village was discovered in a tree on his parkway. The resident, Russell H. Colvin, 605 S. Bristol, president of a Scarsdale home owners' group, commended the board on promptly moving to combat the blight and urged the board to make use of all neighborhood groups in the struggle.

—Accepted the audit and approved changes in procedure recommended by the auditors.

—Sent to the zoning board of appeals a request for a hearing on rezoning of a previously-announced shopping center on S. State rd. near Scarsdale. A multi-family dwelling area at the east end of the store area would form a buffer zone.

Tigers Hold Picnic

Members of the Tigers of the Arlington Heights Little League and their families completed the season with a picnic Monday at 6 p.m. at Elk Grove Forest preserve. Members of the planning committee included Mrs. Delbert L. Miller, Mrs. Russell J. Ward, Mrs. Frank J. Renner, and Mrs. Russell C. Hansen.

Five boys, who are completing their play in the Little League and advancing to the Pony League, received baseballs autographed by their teammates. Those receiving the awards included Gene Crossin, Frank Renner, Jim Diehl, Dick Daeschner and Dick Hansen.

Also honored at the picnic were the Tiger coach, Delbert Miller, and the manager, Harvey Holzem, both of whom received a gift from the team. (Sp

Call 59 Candidates For Football At NU

Ara Parseghian, Northwestern university's new football coach, issued invitations this week to 59 candidates to report for the start of football practice, Sept. 1. The group includes 24 lettermen, 13 squadmen and 23 sophomores.

Parseghian, who takes over the Wildcat coaching reins this fall after a successful five year tenure at Miami of Ohio, emphasized the importance of reporting in good physical condition for the rigorous nine-game schedule that opens against Iowa State, Sept. 29.

The opener will be followed by an intersectional clash with Tulane at Evanston and successive conference games with Minnesota, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio State, Wisconsin, Purdue and Illinois.

Parseghian has assembled an entirely new coaching staff to aid him in what Wildcat followers hope will be an advance up the Big Ten ladder. He has three former Miami aides, Paul Shoults, Bruce Beatty and Dick Urich, plus Alex Agase from Iowa State; Ed Schembechler from Bowling Green, and Dale Samuels, former Purdue quarterback.

Northwestern's "new look" will not be confined to the coaching staff. Parseghian made a number of shifts in player personnel in spring practice while several sophomores are expected to play important roles in the Wildcats' "come back" effort. (Sp

Why Grow Flowers When You Can Make Them?

Visitors to the 4-H Fair this week can learn how to bake a house plant in one's own kitchen. No further need to worry over who will water them when you are vacationing.

Spend part of the evening baking a realistic philodendron or peperomia. They look realistic and are decorative substitutes for the real plant grown in greenhouses.

The plants are made of plastic contained in a handicraft kit and can easily be attractively arranged in containers.

Jean Borgeson, creator of these planter arrangements, will demonstrate how easy it is done.

Election Returns

The special election for the Salt Creek Rural Park district passed with 103 votes cast in its favor and 3 against. Newly elected park commissioners are Johannes A. K. Stenzel, Kenneth Wayne Goodpasture, George A. Sturm, Robert H. Nordstrom and Joseph Thome.

Mr. and Mrs. Hornburg of Wilke rd. recently returned from a vacation spent in Canada.

A MIST BLOWER sprays Arlington Heights elms with a DDT mixture as a precaution against infection by Dutch elm disease. Village authorities have urged home owners to have trees inside their lot lines sprayed. Later this month the village will begin spraying trees in the parkway which show symptoms of the disease. Carnival Raid: Who's At Fault?

(Editor's Note: Last week's editorial column in the Wheeling Herald, published by Paddock Publications, discussed a timely — and timeless — topic which should be of general interest. Columnist Dick Dunkel Jr. raises some important issues which should provoke thought among readers.)

About that Wheeling gambling raid the other week.

It would be awfully easy to say that there can be no excuse for breaking the law and that therefore Wheeling got just what it deserved when the county police did their duty and raided the carnival.

Or it would be easiest of all to ignore the law completely and say that police had no right to bust up in a questionable manner community-sponsored gambling that has been going on for decades and has raised funds for such community projects as the school gym and fire equipment.

But neither of these stands seems very satisfactory under the circumstances.

That an unusual situation exists in which a large portion of a village feels mistreated and resentful toward police for enforcing the law, suggests that there is more to be said than could be covered by either of these cut and dried extremist positions.

Why was there illegal gambling at Wheeling Days in the first place?

Well, the answer seems to be that the village felt it had "squatter's rights" on it.

Everyone knows that money-raising gambling has been going on unmolested at carnivals all over the area for years. And, even though it is known that gambling is illegal on the books, there was no reason to believe that a crackdown was coming this year. In short, Wheeling thought police, as in the past, would turn their heads and that the village could get away with breaking the law.

Wheeling Days was a village project.

And although Wheeling Days included illegal gambling, it was sponsored, or at least not actively opposed, by everybody and every organization in town, including the HERALD which gladly gave publicity and never entertained the thought of an editorial suggesting that perhaps breaking the law, under any circumstance, isn't such a great idea.

In fact, the only effective opposition to the gambling came late Sunday in the form of an anonymous phone call to police.

That was probably the safest, but hardly the noblest, way of upholding law and order. But because you can never be sure of the motives behind anonymous phone tips, the caller may have been just a poor loser at the chuck-a-luck stall and not moved by righteous indignation at all.

The point is: Why was there no objection to the gambling beforehand?

Why did no church congregation, no newspaper, no social group, no village government rise up in defense of the law? This is strange because these stalwarts are supposed to be law-abiding, supposed to be staunch defenders of the American way of life which includes laws against gambling in Illinois.

And the answer probably is that nobody thought much about it at all. The gambling, even though illegal, was accepted as a matter of course. For a multitude of reasons no conscience was disturbed to the point of doing anything about it.

This, we feel, is dangerous. Because when people begin to lose their conscience then all laws mean nothing unless a policeman is peeking over your shoulder and watch out brother, it's every man for himself.

This is why we feel that those who curse the day sheriff Joseph Lohman was born are venting their wrath in the wrong direction. Wheeling has a right to be mad, but not at Lohman. Because when Lohman cracks down on gambling, no matter where or when, he's doing the job our tax money is paying him to do.

The real targets for this resentment that is being wasted on Lohman are Lohman's predecessors — that long line of sheriffs who for some unjustifiable reason or another didn't do their job — and the other molders of public opinion who have allowed Wheeling and many other communities to lose their conscience about breaking the law.

There would seem to be a big job cut out for somebody.

That the conscience of a village was not bothered enough to prevent sanctioning of unlawful gambling should serve as a great incentive to parents, schools, churches, newspapers and village governments whose successes and failures are contained in the moral fibre of their children, graduates, congregations, readers and citizens.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

How Christ Jesus healed sickness and discord of every kind will be set forth at Christian science services Sunday, August 12.

The Master's reply to the messengers of John the Baptist will be included in the Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul" (Luke 7:22): "Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached."

Among the correlative selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (210:11-16): "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation."

Wilson Community News

This community was well represented in Wisconsin last week with the Bill Castells spending their vacation at Lake Holcombe, the S. Bauers staying at Buffalo lake and the Russ Carlsons staying at Pleasant lake.

Mr and Mrs. A. Walter of Rand rd. had as weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. H. Topel of Burlington, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Moske, attended the Legion convention in Chicago as delegates from the Portage Park post and auxiliary.

School Faculty

With the hiring of an additional first grade teacher and teachers to fill vacancies in third, fifth and sixth grades, Wilson is prepared to begin the new school year.

New additions to the staff are: Mrs. Robert E. Angley, Mrs. Edward S. Jackson, Herman C. Meiners and Robert Fortini.

Mrs. Angley will teach first grade. Her B. A. and M. A. degrees were received at Ball State Teachers college at Muncie and the University of Michigan. Mrs. Angley resides at 49 N. Benton st., Palatine.

Mrs. Jackson, who lives at 645 S. Belmont, Arlington Heights, will teach third grade. She received her bachelor's degree from the University of Nevada.

The fifth grade will be taught by Herman C. Meiners of 613 Larkdale, Mt. Prospect. Mr. Meiners received his bachelor's degree at the University of Southern California. He is currently studying at Northwestern university.

Mr. Fortini received his bachelor's degree from Roosevelt university. He is earning his master's degree at De Paul university. He will teach sixth grade at Wilson. Mr. Fortini lives at 4636 N. Avers in Chicago. Prior to coming to Wilson he was a teacher of modern world history at Fenwick high school in Oak Park.

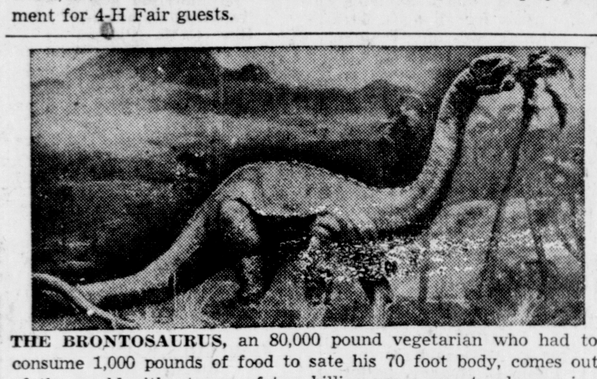
THE CARDINALETTES, a newly-organized group of majorettes from Arlington high school, will perform intricate baton routines at the Chicago Cardinal Intra-squad football game tonight and at the 4-H Fair band concert Friday night. The Arlington Heights Summer Band, under the direction of Fredrick C. Schmoyer, will play before and during the game and present a variety of musical entertainment for 4-H Fair guests. —Staff photo



THE BRONTOSAURUS, an 80,000 pound vegetarian who had to consume 1,000 pounds of food to sate his 70 foot body, comes out of the world-without-man of two billion years ago, to play an important role in the film "The Animal World." Co-featured with "The Animal World" is "Down Liberty Road." Both are in technicolor and are now playing at the Catlow theatre in Barrington.

You Have To "Get Out Of Town" To See American Movies In Denmark

by BILL DILLINGHAM

There is a risk in going to the movies; you might come home drunk.

For the equivalent of seventy-five cents, one can buy a movie ticket in Copenhagen that is also a pass to buying tax-free whiskey and cigarettes. In addition to that, a 2-hour boat ride is thrown in on the deal.

The odd advantages to the purchase of such a movie ticket have grown out of an alleged U.S. motion picture boycott of Denmark. People who want to see new American films have to go to Sweden.

WHEN A DANE purchases his ticket in Copenhagen, he must board a special passenger ship. During his 2-hour ride across the Oresund to Sweden, he can drink tax-free beer and "Snaps," buy American cigarettes for about twenty-five cents a pack (instead of the usual price of fifty-five cents) and eat luxury chocolates at a low price. This is all due to the fact that the ship, being in the Oresund, is in international waters and therefore not subject to many taxes.

Debarking in Sweden, the customer sees the American film and then returns via the same "beer route."

DENMARK'S distributing agent agents, pressed by strict state banking laws, refuse to pay the American demands for films. They are pleading poverty. Adult tickets for most of Denmark's motion picture houses cost from 35 to 50 cents each.

Running this "blockade ship" so that Danes may see Hollywood's latest has developed into a highly prosperous business, but Mr. Jorgen Jensen, owner of the venture, who claims to be really interested in the idea's cultural benefits, pointed out that there is one serious drawback.

"By the time my ship reaches Sweden," he lamented, "many of the passengers have had too many Snaps to enjoy the film. Confidentially, I think some of them don't come to see the picture at all." (Bill

Will Celebrate in Guam

Bob Horbus will celebrate his 18th birthday August 20 on the island of Guam, where he is on duty with the navy. He has not been home since February 20 and will not be here again on leave until September, 1957. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Horbus, are planning a birthday card party for him and will appreciate all cards sent to him. His address is R. C. Horbus, 479-38-73 SN, U. S. Naval Mag. N926, % FPO, San Francisco, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ostrowski and children returned Friday evening from a vacation in Merrimac, Wis. They swam and hiked at Devils Lake and went shopping in Baraboo. The children revelled in the sandy beaches, but most exciting was the ride on the ferry boat to their cottage. They were fortunate to have good weather during their stay.

Mary Kaiser, Pat Wuestenfeld and Marsha Shoemaker enjoyed a day at Riverview Friday.

Undergoes Surgery

Mrs. Ted Depalma underwent minor surgery in Sherman hospital Saturday morning. Progress was reported as satisfactory and she was expected to return home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ostrowski entertained a group of friends at a picnic supper Sunday. There were 10 couples with their 31 children present. The guests played volleyball and table tennis and the small fry swam and splashed in the pool.

The members of the E. Heinkel household have recently returned home from their vacations. Eddie spent 2 weeks vacationing in Canada, Mrs. Doris Kelly and son, Jimmy, were at Fox Lake for a week, with Billy joining them over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Heinkel were in Wautoma and Two Rivers for a week and on their return Mrs. Heinkel's mother, Mrs. Mary Lord, accompanied them here for a weeks visit.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Wagner are parents of a girl, Linda Sue, born July 30 in Resurrection hospital. The baby has an older sister, Gale, 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moder were among the 5 couples who had a progressive dinner party Saturday evening. The Moder home was the final stop, where Mrs. Moder served cake and coffee. The weather was too cold that evening so the guests were disappointed in their hopes to swim in the Moders new swimming pool.

Mary Johnson returned home Thursday after spending a few weeks visiting her aunt in Old Mission, Mich.

Birthday greetings go to Ellen Ostrowski, who will be 6 August 11, to Johnny Kappa, who will be 11 August 13, and to Cheryl Kim, who will be 6 August 15.

Susan Kappa visited all of last week with her great-grandmother and cousins in Chicago.

Judy and Gary Kessler had their third polio shots last week.

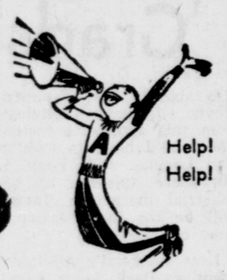
KICKIN' IT AROUND



by Bob Paddock

BILL BUCKELLEW, athletic director at the new Community High School District 108 in Medinah, says the new school will compete only on a junior-varsity and freshman athletic level in its initial year, then branch into a complete varsity schedule. He added, "We are still in need of some football games in both divisions. I would appreciate any interested school contacting me at the high school."

Bill Buckellew

Buckellew did his undergraduate work at North Dakota State, following a successful prep athletic career at Georgetown, Illinois, and a 3 year hitch in the Air Force. At No. Dakota State he was a varsity fullback for 3 years. After college the personable athletic director served on the staff of Physical Education at the University of Illinois, acting as assistant freshman football coach on the 1952 club which included such names as Hiles Stout, Harry Jefferson, and Abe Woodson of the present varsity squad. Prior to coming to Medinah, Bill served as coach of all sports at Kankakee Public School for 2 years.

TOM OCASEK continued to uphold the accomplishments of Arlington's swimmers by taking a second in the 100 meter freestyle in the recent Junior Olympics held at St. Cloud, Minnesota. He missed a first by one-tenth of a second and swam with some 750 entrants including the Canadian Olympic team. He followed this up with a double victory in the Illinois Men's Senior A. A. U. meet at Park Ridge upon his return where he qualified lowest in the 100 meter freestyle.

In the finals he swam second to the national collegiate champion Al Kuhn formerly of N. U. and was touched out by Tom Jacobsen of Iowa U. varsity.

He then came back to take a second in the 400 meter freestyle. Tom and Stan Norman will attend the U. S. Olympic trials this week at Detroit where he is entered in the 100 meter free style event for experience. In September he will continue his career under the coaching of Dave Armbruster at the University of Iowa.

WISCONSIN AND MINNESOTA lakes lost one of their "fishingest" customers this summer. Rudy Lacina, secretary of the Arlington Heights plan commission, recently returned from a 1500-mile fishing expedition into the wilds of northern Ontario.

Rudy and his son brought back their limit, taken in a few hours, and declare that Canada is the ideal fishing spot. It was their first trip up that way, after years of angling in Wisconsin and Minnesota waters.

From now on, says Rudy, he hopes to make a jaunt across the border every summer.

JOHN DEININGER, rookie from Bradley U and Arlington Heights, has made a fine impression with the Bear coaching staff after nearly 3 weeks of training at St. Joseph's College, Rensselaer, Ind. . . . Deininger is being tried out at defensive end, where the competition is wide open with the retirement of Ed Sprinkle . . . John reported in excellent shape, coming to camp only a few days after receiving his army release . . . Here's a bit of information you can read and then forget: no catcher has ever won a batting crown in American league . . . Jr. Legion team of Poplar, Mont., suffered injuries to 6 catchers in turn due to a jammed thumb on a foul tip, fractured a finger and ripped off a nail, lost a finger in an elevator accident, suffered scalp laceration after being hit with a bat, knee disclocation, and muscle spasm . . . Outstanding state track hurdler at Bloom Frank Cara will attend Western at Macomb.

Dave Sime's pulled muscles in his legs are supposedly the result of the Duke university star having a right leg 1½ inches bigger around than his left, causing undue strain on the left.

Hugh Daugherty headed this week's program of Indiana high school association's coaching school this week . . . striving for a spot on Olympic swim team this week will be Indiana's Bill Woolsey who, as a 17-year-old, helped clip 13 seconds off 800-meter relay record at Helsinki in '52 . . . Indiana's football players will wear 3-inch numbers on each side of their helmets to aid identification in game news photos . . . Once again the tickets for Illini football games carry school colors of competing teams . . . Heaviest and oldest player for Michigan State gridders this fall will be 26-year-old, 240-pound tackle Tom Saidock.

FOOTBALL IS IN THE AIR with Chicago Cardinals annual intrasquad game Thursday night at Arlington Heights high school field, the all-star game at Soldier Field Friday night, our Chicago Bears and University of Illinois season tickets in our desk, and our reservations made for the Bear trek to Green Bay . . . This week Northwestern and Indiana U. press departments started operating once more, and first football brochure of the season arrived from Purdue . . . All that's left of summer is about 8 lawn cuttings, 2 swims, and possibly 10 days of 90 degree weather.

Purdue seats 55,000 for football, has a fieldhouse for 9,600, men in attendance last year, accompanied by just 2,000 girls.

Purdue seats 55,000 for football ,has a fieldhouse for 9,600, has schools for 11 engineering classifications . . . We can remember when the only engineer was the man in the iron horse who waved to every kid in the neighborhood . . . The grid roster lists 14 from Chicago, 2 others from Illinois . . . Among players asked to report for the Wildcat squad are Peter DeBeer of Crystal Lake, Frank Caiazza of LaGrange . . . 10 Foursomes Point For Big Tourney Aug. 19

From the cradle to the grave—that's the slogan of many a socialist in his wildest dreams, and the same holds true for Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament Sunday, Aug. 19, at Roselle golf club.

First place teams as of Aug. 4 were eligible for the annual tourney, and most of the entries are in. Only Bensenville VFW league is still scheduled to report. Next week's sports pages will carry actual listing of foursomes for the tournament, as selected by tournament managers.

First foursome will tee off promptly at 12:00. Up for grabs will be the large traveling trophy, the 12 medals to individuals on the first 3 teams, and the dozen golf balls to low individual net. All of the loot is on display this week in the window of Sundberg's Store for Men in Mt. Prospect.

THE SPONSORS whose teams made the tournament can supply all of your needs for a lifetime, with a few apologies to the publicity fraternity. There's "Team A" which is always the beginning. There's a pharmacist for baby's, children's and the family's needs. Then comes the barber, the cleaner, the realtor. For refreshment there's a liquor store, for amusement a tavern. An auto dealer will get you there. And for the finale, a funeral home.

NO LIST of competitors in previous tournaments has been so compete. Most golf leagues are getting ready to wind up their seasons, with the Paddock tournament the climax. Greens fees have been paid by the leagues, so the 40 golfers will have everything to gain and nothing to lose Aug. 19.

Golfers who competed in the Paddock tournament before include Harold Thorsell, Bruno Waara, Lou Sadecky and Bill Mott. Here's a rundown on entries thus far:

Bowes Motors: Paul Troyke, Everett Swanson, Harold Thorsell, Dick Korsgard; alternate — Don Schatzeder.

Cork & Bottle: Bruno Waara, Al Griffith, Bob Lee, Til Foy; alternate—W. Haake.

K. Whitton Realty: William Salzman, Henry Baylis, Earl Thompson, Harry Dodds; alternate—Geo. Laubenheimer.

Moler's Barber Shop: Al Barlo, Bill Mott, Stan Ellis, Bob Pitt; alternate—Brendan Ryan.

L-Nor Cleaners: Bill Wilson, Lou Sadecky, Vern Sauer, Red Kastner; alternate—C. Vogt or W. Grandstaff.

Black's Memorial Home: Charles Staadt, Raymond Whitcomb, Robert Rankine, Peter Chimes; alternate—Arthur Martens.

Team "A": Stewart Sage, Steve Mukahirn, Roger Hertel, Harold Masters; no alternate listed.

Glueckert's Lounge: Mike Graft, Joe Brodnan, Jack Peters, Pete Bodor; alternate—"Bud" Hawley.

Chicago Cards' Intrasquad Game In Arlington Tonight

by BOB FRISK

Ollie Matson, Lamar McHan, Johnny Olszewski, Dave Mann, and company will be in Arlington Heights tonight to launch off the Chicago Cardinals' 1956 professional football season with an intrasquad contest on the Arlington high school field.

Rated as the "sleeper" in the Eastern Division race this year, Coach Ray Richards' Windy City club will initiate the '56 campaign at 8:30 p.m. on the local gridiron. Seats will be on sale at the gate.

Potentially, this Chicago club has the material to annex the division crown as the almost perennial champion Cleveland Browns will be at a definite handicap without the great passer Otto Graham at the helm. The Browns, Giants, and Cards are rated as the top 3 in the Eastern league in one pre-season dope sheet with one coach stating this about the Cards: "You can't disregard any team with a performer like Ollie Matson."

THE SHEET listed as the Cards' assets a wealth of backfield material with an outstanding rookie in Joe Childress, Auburn's All- American in 1955. But it listed thin resources in the offensive line and question-mark quarterbacking as the chief deficits.

But they do have Matson and Ollie is one of the biggest drawing-cards in the loop. He is considered by many as the finest running back to ever play in the National Football League. In three years with the Cards Ollie has carried the ball 306 times for 1,325 yards and 8 touchdowns; caught 62 passes for 1,035 yards and 8 touchdowns; returned 33 punts for 431 yards and 3 TD's; returned 52 kickoffs for 1,440 yards and 3 counters, in addition to doing a terrific job on pass defense.

Teamed with Matson is one of the most explosive backfields in pro ball are Dave Mann, fleet halfback from Oregon State who was an outstanding rookie in the NFL, Johnny Olszewski, California product who is one of those hard working, under-rated pro fullbacks, and Lamar MaHan, for 2 seasons the starting quarterback and the key to the success of the 1956 team.

SPEED IS one of the keynotes on this Cardinals' outfit as evidenced by some of the 100 yard dash marks posted by the personnel. Fastest man on the squad is Alex Burl, service returnee who played his collegiate ball at Colorado A & M. Burl ran the 100 yard dash in world record time of 9.3 seconds in May's Fresno Relays.

Next to Burl in the speed department are Matson and Jim Mill who have both turned in 9.5 clockings. Halfback Les Goble runs the century in 9.6; rookie halfback Julian Spence of Sam Houston and Fort Ord, is a 9.7 sprinter and rookie fullback. Lu Neumann from the Pier is a 9.8 man. Two other men, Mann and Max Boydston, have 9.9 marks with 5 men holding clockings of 10 seconds flat. Almost 50 percent of the squad of 56 players can run the century under 10.5.

Two of the Cardinals' top rookthe College All-Stars—Cleveies, Childress and John Dittrich of Wisconsin, will not be in the game tonight as they are preparing for land Brown encounter tomorrow night at Soldier Field. Childress was the No. 1 draft pick.

FOLLOWING THE intrasquad game the Cards will resume training at Lake Forest in Preparation for the first of six pre-season games, a date with the Chicago Bears in the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla. on Saturday night, Aug. 18. The remainder of the pre-season slate lines up like this: Detroit Lions, Aug. 25 in Ladd Memorial Stadium in Mobile, Ala., the 49ers on Sept. 2 in Kezar Stadium in San Francisco; the Rams in the Coliseum in Los Angeles, Sept. 7; the Green Bay Packers in Busch Stadium, St. Louis, on Sept. 15, and a wind-up with the New York Giants in Crump Stadium, Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 21. The Cards open the NFL season in Chicago with the Cleveland Browns at Comiskey Park, Sept. 30.

Bokelman To Face Illini Star Sunday

Dick Vorreyer, stylish lefty who has been the No. 1 moundsman for 2 seasons for the University of Illinois, and Dick Bokelmann, Arlington's veteran hurler, will share pitching duties Sunday when Oak Park and the Redwings tangle at Recreation Park for the lead in the Greater Chicago Semi-Pro loop.

Arlington's forfeit win over Worth AC last Sunday and Oak Park's impressive conquest of Kolski's were the factors which moved the league race into its current tight position. Kolski's, with an 8-5 loop slate, is in first place with a .615 win percentage.

Oak Park and Arlington, with identical 9-6 marks, have .600 slates. Skokie blasted by the Chicago Vets last Sunday, 12-0, is tied with the Vets for the fourth slot.

VORREYER IS one of the big reasons why Oak Park is moving up into a threatening position. The former Morton High School hurler has been one of the leading pitchers in the Big Ten for 2 seasons, boasting the Western Conference's top earned run mark as a sophomore in '55. Last spring, as did the rest of the Illini diamond squad, Vorreyer suffered a little slump, but he still pitched good ball for the Big Ten club. He recently joined the Oak Park nine and has pitched them into a contending position.

Bokelmann will have to be at his best to check the Oak Park squad and Arlington will have to back the former St. Louis Cardinal relief pitcher with a better hitting attack than they've shown this summer. The locals have been a good defensive club which hasn't produced any prolific offensive performances to speak of.

ACCORDING TO Manager Bud Blumenthal, the Redwings will be full strength for the first time in a number of weeks as they tackle Oak Park. Blumenthal also mentioned the possibility of adding Don Blaha, former Northwestern basketball and baseball star, as he is listed on the roster.

Last Sunday, when Worth failed to show up, the Redwings split up for an intrasquad contest with several members of the Arlington legion team also seeing some action. Bokelmann and Tommy Hoffman, another top pitcher in the semi-pro loop, shared the mound chores in a tight 5-4 ballgame. (SP

3 All-Star Contests In MP Minor League

by BILL GODMAN

The Minor league summer recreation baseball program at Owens Park, sponsored by the Mt. Prospect Park District, will end this week with a series of 3 All-Star games, pitting the National League against the American League.

Twenty-four players were chosen by supervisor Ted Geocaris, Bill Godman, the managers, and the coaches of the various teams. Three players were chosen from the top 4 teams, while 2 players were chosen from the remaining 6 teams.

The games will be played on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week. Game time will be 10:30 a.m. The following boys were chosen for the All-Star games:

BALMER, SOX; Bud Van Allen, Sox; Raeder, Orioles; Jim Van Allen, Sox; Powell, Tigers; Bradshaw, Orioles; Prahl, Tigers; Stevens, Indians; White, Braves; Wemhauer, Braves; Wilkes, Cubs; Cameron, Cubs; Ziel, Cubs; Barker, Giants; Smosma, Giants; Craig Schoenbeck, Giants; Pankau, Yankees; Odemark, Yankees; Marks, Yankees; Perz, Dodgers; Bach, Dodgers; Murphy, Indians; Laden, Pirates; Schwann, Pirates.

The program, with more than 200 boys participating, started actual league play, June 25. There was 1 week of practice before the league play started. On each of the 10 teams in the league, there are about 17 boys ranging in age from 9 to 12. Each team has a manager and most of the teams have 1 or 2 coaches to help out in the rugged 90 game schedule. The coaches are as follows:

Red Sox Gain 2nd Straight Arlington LL Championship

by BOB FRISK

The Red Sox did it again! They added the 1956 Little League championship to their '55 crown with 4-0 and 5-4 victories over the Cardinals last week in the World Series of Arlington's summer program.

Manager Jack Hightower's Sox used a no-hitter by Craig Quackenbush and a 2-run sixth inning to decision the Cards in the 2 series tilts and match the feat of Henry Haiduke's '55 champions which also won the title in 2 straight contests, compiling impressive 16-9 and 4-2 victories.

Merrill Kephart and Ross Retterer did the pitching for the Red Sox in the series finale, August 1, and yielded 5 hits. Chuck Close and Jimmy Nelson shared the duties for the losers and also allowed 5 hits.

TWO BIG runs in the final frame put the Red Sox ahead, 5-2, but they still had to stave off a Cardinal uprising which produced a pair of counters in the home half of the sixth.

Quackenbush, the youngster who hurled a no-hitter in the series lidlifter, paced the champions' attack in the second contest with 2 hits. Jack Mutti had 2 safeties for the losers.

In two other playoffs for postseason laurels the Angels edged the Millers, 8-7, for the championship of the junior league, and the Dons stopped the Comets, 3-1, in the intermediate league playoff.

WITTER STRUCK out 13 walked only 3 in hurling the Angels to the title. Grem worked on the hill for the Millers and struck out 12, walking 3.

Hoppe had 3 hits for the Angels to pace the winner's attack and Grom collected a trio of base hits for the Millers. Witter and Townley had 2 hits each for the Angels and Weber added 2 to the Millers' attack.

Thirty-four players got into the contest July 31, but only 4 collected hits as the Dons decisioned the Comets, 3-1. Rateike and Knight worked for the Comets and combined for 10 strikeouts and 6 walks. Lips went the route for the champs and did a masterful job, striking out 17 and walking only 3.

Merchants Top Schwans, 9-3; 14th Victory In 15 Contests

On August 4 the Mt. Prospect Little League game between the Merchants and the Schwans had all the earmarks of being a pitcher's battle until the Merchants broke a scoreless tie by unleashing an 8-run attack in the fourth. In this inning Cosman, the winning pitcher, connected for a single and a home run.

Cosman struck out 15 and gave up only 2 hits, a home run and a single, both by R. Hanson. Leekley and Walters hit triples for the Merchants and Virta banged out 2 singles.

The Merchants now have a season record of 14 wins and only 1 loss.

Merchants ..... 000 801—9-9
Schwans ..... 000 111—3-2
Batteries: Merchants, Cosman and Johnson; Schwans, R. Hanson, Steegstra, and Lewin.

IN OTHER Little League contests the Elks stopped Schwans, 9-6; the Lions outslugged the Professionals, 10-8; and the Professionals edged the Builders, 7-6.

In a game called on account of darkness after 4 frames the Elks, although they collected only 2 hits, knocked off the Schwans, 9-6, August 1. Laden and Blair collected the hits in the contest for the winners. Greco had 2 hits for Schwans.

Schwans ..... 220 2—6-6
Batteries: Elks, lBair and Trebat; Schwans, McLean, Hubbard, and Lewin.

DESPITE ERBER'S 3 straight hits and 5-hit pitching, the Professionals still managed to edge the Builders, 7-6, July 31. Erber did all the hitting and Bailey scored 3 runs but they couldn't check the Professionals who countered with Weber and Walker on the mound.

Builders ..... 300 201—6-5
Professionals ..... 023 20*—7-5
Batteries: Builders, Erber and Holmes; Professionals, Weber, Walker, and W. Steinmiller.

The Lions captured a 10-8 decision, August 2, over the Professionals in a game called at the end of the fourth because of darkness. Greer was the winning pitcher with Weber picking up the loss. The Lions' Braun had 3 hits and he scored 3 runs in 3 official trips to the plate. Griffiths had 2 hits for the losers.

Professionals ..... 023 3— 8-4
Lions ..... 244 0—10-9
Batteries: Professionals, Weber, Johnston, and Steinmiller; Lions, Braun, Greer and Harland.

Meyer To Look For Replacements Of Legion 'Grads'

by BOB FRISK

With an outlook toward 1957 Manager Lloyd Meyer will use the next few weeks to look over the young prospects on the Arlington Jr. Legion club.

Several games will be played between the legion nine and local Arlington Boosters with emphasis placed on giving the young ballplayers, with a season or seasons of legion eligibility left, a chance to see some extensive action.

Meyer is optimistic when he previews the '57 club, but the personable manager is also quick to note the apparent shortcomings.

WITH ACE twirler Bob Miller able to compete one more year in legion ball and with such names as Lee Magnusson, Denny Thill, Jerry Klement, Al Hutchinson, Ed Schumacher, Dick Nickelsen, Al Sander, and Johny Oberg back for next summer's play, Meyer has every reason to be a little optimistic. And then there will be the addition of some Colt League and Pony League performers.

"Our main weakness this summer was definitely lack of hitting, but with this added year of experience behind them and with Miller back on the mound, Arlington should be a tough club next year." Only time will tell of course, and a lot can happen in a year, but there isn't a better time than now for Meyer to look over the young players and attempt to form some long-range plans for '57.

Then there are the aforementioned shortcomings. Lack of an experienced outfield and development of a front-line catcher are 2 of the main items which Meyer will be trying to solve during these coming practice games and sessions.

SANDER AND Nickelsen will be the 2 boys who will get the test behind the plate in an attempt to find an adequate replacement for Ed Meinken, an All-Star district catcher for 2 seasons. Schumacher and Magnuson are the only proven outfielders on this summer's club who have another year of eligibility, but Magnuson will probably be more valuable in the infield. Meyer is quick to praise Lee's work at shortstop during the latter part of the campaign. "He can move with the best to either side and has excellent reflexes. With some added weight and development of a little stronger throwing arm, Lee could be the top shortstop to come around in a long time. He's a good hitter who should get even better with age.

The infield prospects are definitely encouraging. Klement is a 6-5 left handed sticker who tagged 2 tremendous homers during the season and showed signs of developing into a consistent hitter. Overcoming his handicap with curve balls will be Jerry's main objective. Thill has never hit to his potential but next year might be his year. Denny can play anywhere on the club, would be a good little hurler with a little more work, might be used in the outfield. He has good speed and could plug up the important center field slot. Hutchinson is a steady infielder who appears set at second base. Al broke a finger this summer and he didn't get a good chance to bring up his batting average.

OBERG IS A left-hander who only started one game but who has the potential for a good season on the mound. With Miller, Thill, and Oberg capable of pitching good ball and with Klement also able to hurl if called upon, Meyer will have 4 pitchers back from this summer's roster alone. Then, he'll have to look into the Colt League and Pony League, but there appears to be good material there, too. Inexperience will be the main drawback outside of Miller.

Last weekend's All-Star tournament a Park Ridge found the 4 Arlington representatives giving a good showing with Smeby and Miller on the hill in Saturday's contest and with Miller seeing extensive action Sunday. Dan Vittum patrolled right field with Ed Meinken behind the plate during the latter part of Saturday's affair which the 9th district won, 5-3, and Ed started out as the backstop in Sunday's game with the 7th district. Vittum cracked out a long triple in Sunday's game and also collected a single in the [illegible] game.

The sensational hitting of Larry Buchanan sparked Maywood to the state championship this past weekend in the last bit of news in the week's legion wars. Buchanan, whom we reported last week as the hottest Major League prospect in Cook County, blasted 2, 380 [illegible] a triple, double, and single in Saturday's victory over [illegible] then collected a single and 4 walks, 3 intentional, in Sunday's title-clinching contest. Six-for-7 against th downstate's "best" and they laughed at what appeared to be a padded .665 season average!

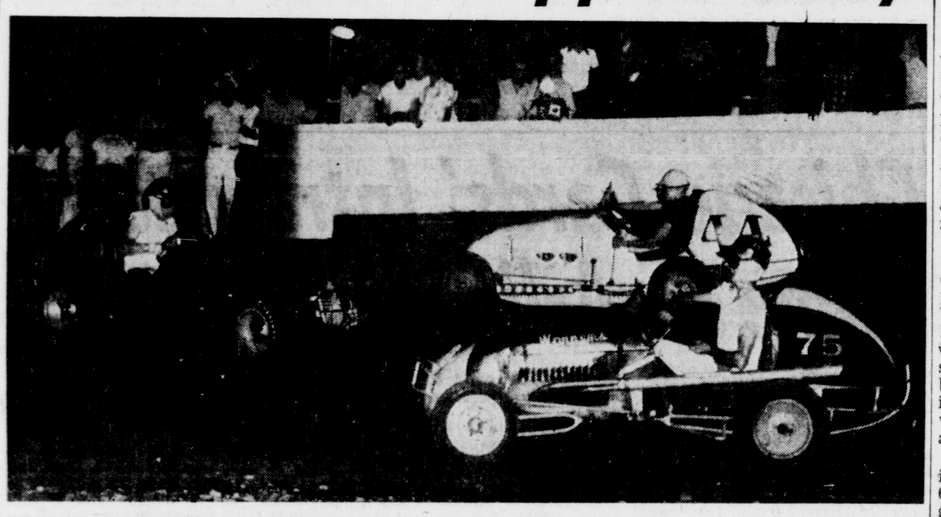
Drivers From 5 States Run In O'Hare 50 Lapper Friday



MIDGET ACTION such as shown here earlier this season will highlight the special 50-lap midseason championship show or the small race cars this Friday evening at O'Hare Stadium, Mannheim rd., just south of Irving Park. Rib Hare of Cicero here spins around in the path of Bob Ellingham of Blue Island as Paul Kerber of Elgin eludes the fracas by wheeling to the inside of the track. Hare and Ellingham collided a second after this shot was taken, but neither driver was seriously hurt. —Staff photo

One of the greatest open competition fields of mighty midget race cars and driving stars ever assembled is set to compete this Friday night, August 10, in the special midseason championship program at O'Hare Stadium, Irving Park and Mannheim rds.

The sizeable $2,000 purse which has been posted by promoters Bill Cherney and Tex Wooten is expected to lure top cars and drivers from half a dozen states, a number of which will be appearing for Chicago area fans at O'Hare for the first time. A 50-lap feature race and 25-lap semi-final event will highlight the program.

THE 50 LAPPER will be the stoutest battle seen in many years involving the surprising Ford V8-60 cars in action against the powerful and world famous Offenhauser-powered midgets. Gates will open at 6 p.m. with the first competitive event set for 8:30 under the lights.

Among the favorites who'll be going after major shares of the purse and a chance to kiss one of Chicagoland's beautiful models at the trophy presentations after both the main event and semi-final will be these drivers:

BILL CHENNAULT and Eddie McVay, both of Kansas City, Mo.; Bob Ellingham, Blue Island; Byron Fisher, Harvey; Rib Hare, Cicero; Jim Haynes, Homewood; Duke Norman, Matteson, Ill.; Kelly Peters, Lake Forest; Mike Ladd, Kenosha, Wis., and Chicagoans Lloyd Janke and Ernie Zartler, all in powerful Offenhausers.

Handlers of Ford-powered cars will include Bob Tattersall, Streator, Ill.; Bill Wood, Kenosha; George Petit, Maywood; Red Hoyle, Davenport, Ia.; Smokey Joe Will, Gary, Ind.; Owen Snyder, Madison, Wis., George Mack, Chicago; Gene Weyant, Springfield, and many, many more.

AMONG STILL others who will be in the battle for money and glory will be Landy Scott of Milwaukee, who drives a Studebaker-powered car, and Chicago's Bill Brumbach and Bill Hortsmeyer of Madison, who both drive midgets with Chevrolet power plants.

All these drivers and cars and still others expected to represent every section of the middle west will converge on O'Hare this Friday night, August 10, for the midseason championship with a 50-lap feature race. (Sp

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McELROY

FENTON HIGH at Bensenville will start work this fall on a new football field on the site where the new school was erected. Funds are lacking to finish the field and have it ready for the fall of 1957 but athletic director Frank Novatny states it should be ready for 1958. The student body at Fenton voted this spring to present a plaque to the school for the new field dedicating it to the memory of Tom Meneguin, varsity coach, who passed away suddenly last fall during the football season.

Meneguin had coached at Bensenville for many years and directed the school athletes to a number of Northwest conference championships.

Fine future sports rivalry is expected between Fenton and the new high school at Medinah which will serve the Roselle-Itasca area. The Medinah school will open this fall with most of its students having previously attended Glenbard or Fenton. For the first year the school will have no seniors as they will be permitted to finish at the schools they have been attending.

This year Fenton will play Medinah in JV and frosh athletics and the following year, 1957-58, will meet their neighbor in all sports at all levels.

The Fenton opener a year hence in football will be with Medinah and if the two are not in the same conference it is planned to meet annually in the opening gridiron contest. Medinah is slated to be a member of the Little Seven while Fenton along with Palatine, Glenbrook, and some others are very much in the dark as to what their affiliation will be for the 1957-58 school year. Eventually Fenton, Medinah, and Palatine should be in the same conference.

LAST WEEK WE STATED we expected to announce the coaching staff at Palatine this week with the replacements for Art Zimmer and Gene Moylan who resigned for western jobs. We had a man under contract for a few days who had taken Collinsville, Cathedral of Springfield, and La-Salle Peru to the Illinois state basketball finals during his 15 years of experience but when he faced the prospect of the price of housing up here in relation to the selling price of his house in Decatur, which housed 6 in the family, he gave up and decided he could not make the change.

The housing problem both in high rents and high prices for buying homes is a great problem of the schools of this area in attracting good teachers.

WE HAVE NOT BEEN paying much attention to the workout reports of the College All-Stars and the Cleveland Browns as they prime for their big game at Soldier Field Friday night. It was a great sports spectacle that the late Arch Ward started and sponsored for so many years.

One of the last things he did was to hand pick the coaching staff for the All-Stars and get away from conservative college coaches.

The wisdom of this move was proved by the type of open game the All-Stars have used under Curley Lambeau and the success they experienced. It is our opinion that the Cleveland Browns will beat the All-Stars come Friday night but we hope the result goes the other way. Anyway, it will be the type of game the fans like.

3 Errors Help Yanks Capture Pony League Win

by BILL GODMAN

The Capitol Door Yanks, helped considerably by 3 costly errors, defeated the Braves, 7-5, in a Pony League game, August 2, at Lions Park.

The game was called in the sixth because of darkness and it was a good thing for the Yanks, because the Braves had scored 4 runs and had a base-runner at third base with only 1 out. However, since the inning was not completed, the score reverted back to the fifth inning.

After the Braves grabbed a quick 3-0 lead on singles by Terry Haenggi and Roger Haenggi, a walk to Weller, and a double by Kruse, the Yanks tied it by scoring 3 times on singles by Thorne, Koester, and Nash, a fielder's choice, and an error.

GERRY HAENGGI'S homer put the Braves momentarily in front, but the Yanks loaded the bases in their half of the second and all the runners scored on 2 throwing errors to put the Yanks in front to stay. After the Braves made it, 6-5, the Yanks added an insurance run in the fifth when Ron Schafer doubled to drive in Mike Nash who had walked.

Pitching for the winners was Jeff Kobi while Bob Hammarley did the twirling for the Braves.

Local Boosters Host Oak Park, Yanks, All-Stars

Arlington's Boosters move into a series of stiff competition starting Saturday when they face Oak Park, Chicago Yankees, and Midwest All-Stars within a space of one week at Recreation Park.

With a win, loss, and 7-1 lead erased because of rain the Boosters have had a little of everything in their initial 3 games this summer. The win was a 5-1 affair over the Dundee Merchants, the loss an 8-0 decision to the Evanston Flashes, and the 7-1 lead was over the Elgin Vets in an abbreviated contest Sunday.

Saturday's contest at Recreation Park is slated to start at 3:30 p.m. The next home game is August 14 with the powerful Chicago Yankees, boasting such names as Ron Rutkowski and John Perrill, former Maine stars, and Roger Jenne of Schurz High. The Midwest All-Stars move into town August 16, for a game at 5:45 p.m.

An encouraging factor about the Boosters so far this season has been the hitting attack. Even in the 8-0 whitewashing at Evanston the Boosters didn't look helpless at the plate although they lacked the clutch hit. Sunday they put on an impressive show in the few innings only to have the contest washed from the books. Bob Getts and Ted Bakalar had collected homers and Stan Fletcher had rapped a triple for the long blows as the locals built up a 7-1 lead.

Southpaw Johnny Sujack ran into a streak of control trouble at Evanston and the Boosters could never overcome the host's early lead. The club, sponsored by Dick Black of Black's Memorial Home, got men on but couldn't score. Lloyd Meyer paced the offense with 2 hits.

The lineup for the Boosters has remained intact with Rog Thomas at first, Getts at second with Meyer operating at the keystone against Evanston, Charley Verret at short, and Bakalar at third. Stan Fletcher, Ron Ashley, and Bob Hamilton have been covering the outfield. Bob Dotts has been doing the catching with Sujack, Hamilton, and Mike Shanklin on the mound. Reserves include Dave Ryden, acting manager, Dave Lynk, and Randy Thomas with Ed Meinken catching a few frames against Evanston.

To Take Rolling Meadows Little League Pics Saturday

Paddock Publications photographers will be taking pictures of the Rolling Meadows Little League teams this Saturday, Aug. 11, at 9:30 a.m. with all teams scheduled to appear. Included are 4 Little League, 5 minor league and 3 Pony league teams.

Boys and adult coaches and managers are asked to be prompt at the new Little League field so the photographer can snap pictures as fast as possible. If everyone is on time the entire production shouldn't take more than 40 minutes. (Sp

Northside Managers Win Softball Game

The Northside managers had too much power for the Southside mentors, August 4, in a hotly-contested 16" softball game at Recreation Park as they gained a 21-8 victory behind the 18-hit pitching of Sass and Martin.

A 9-run fifth inning by the northside was the big segment for both teams. Hightower, Tossman, and Schultz shared the pitching duties for the southside as they yielded 18 hits in the 9 inning affair.

Graczyk was the big hitter in the two lineups with a homer and triple. Ashley had a triple and Babs added a homer for the other long clouts.

Mt. Prospect Dog Wins Show Honors

Thil-Mar Bullet, a 14 month old miniature schnauzer male, walked off with top honors Sunday at the 18th annual all-breed dog show sponsored by Jaxson Kennel club, Jackson, Mich.

The winning dog is owned by Edward F. Stauber, 18 W. Busse ave., Mt. Prospect, and was handled by Dick Cooper of Libertyville.

THE DOG won best of breed, best of winners, best variety of breed, and was awarded 1 point. Altogether, he received 4 ribbons and a trophy.

Stauber's dog will be entered next weekend at the LaPorte County Kennel club's show at Michigan City, Ind. (Sp

Correction — Gerken Suffers 8-7 Loss In All-Star Game

An error appeared in last week's story on the Arlington Heights Pony League All-Star game. The story mentioned that Gregg Beckway absorbed the loss in the tight 8-7 affair but the pitcher of record who did pick up the defeat was Don Gerken. Gerken put the winning run on second and an error brought the tally in with Beckway on the mound. The two top pitchers involved, Gerken and Beckway, combined to pitch the outstanding game of the Pony League season, July 24, an 8 inning, 0-0 tie with Gregg's hit spoiling Gerken's bid for a no-hitter. Cork & Bottle Cinches Berth In Paddock Tournament

Cork & Bottle managed to cinch its berth in the Paddock Tourney by winning 5 points from Stewart Floor & Tile to maintain its 5-point lead over M. W. Kamps Signs in the Old Orchard Scratch League.

Smith & Dawson pushed out State & Rand to take over the number 3 spot, 2 points behind second, and Peterson Floor moved to the 5 slot by collecting 4 points from Flaherty Jewelers.

TWO BIRDIES on number 10 started out the contest between Stewart Floor and Cork & Bottle made by C. Miller of S. F. and B. Lee of C. & B. Waara's 36 earned the low score point together with A. Griffith's 38 and B. Lee's 39 was good enough to win the low team point. Each won their matches against C. Miller, Stewart, Jr., and Stewart, Sr., respectively.

Smith & Dawson, playing Griffith Ins., won 2 of their matches; D. Musser over E. Bray, and M. Graft over E. Spacapan and tied the other 2; P. Scully and H. Klapp; Bengel and Brenner. D. Musser's 38 was good for the low score point and M. Grafts' 39 and Scully's 39 won them their team point for a total of 5 points.

Prospect Heights Pharmacy beatbeating par.

C. P. Floor and Wall Covering, 6½-2½, while Jacobs Hardware was losing to Ehler & Wenborg by the same score in the Rob Roy Tuesday golf league. Also, Prospect Hts. Variety Store lost to Kirchhoff Insurance, 7½-½. The loss to the 2 nearest competitors gave the Pharmacy their opportunity to move out to a 4-point lead. Stan Fill's 38 paced the Pharmacy to its win.

A big night was had by Prospect Hts. Service Station. Big Stan Pietzak led the 9-0 assault on Gunnells Recreation with a par 36 on the back nine. At the same time, Thorsen's 42, Wilkerson's 44, and Lampert's 43 gave them a team total of 165 which tied Prospect Heights Variety for low gross of the season.

Couple Of Holes Could Cause Trouble For Paddock Golfers

A rolling layout with a par 73 covering 6,475 yards of wide, well-turfed fairways will be the scene of the 1956 Paddock Publications seventh annual Inter-League Handicap golf tournament Sunday, August 19.

The popular Roselle golf club has excellent facilities both as to the course and club house to satisfy all types of golfers. There are 3 nines, 1 being constructed especially for the ladies and high handicap players with a par of 34. The club has a fine practice putting green, lockers for 200 men and 50 women, a spacious dining room which can handle 200, and bars upstairs and downstairs. Under the new management of Gene Duerino and Louis Deluca, the clubroom has been re-decorated.

Last year the Paddock tourney was held on the Arlington Country Club course with the Mt. Prospect Lions' foursome stroking their way over the 6,132 yard layout in gross 352, net 284, for the team championship.

TWO HOLES in particular at Roselle should cause plenty of trouble for the golfers representing 10 twilight leagues come Aug. 19 with special emphasis placed on the tough 16th hole. It is a 560 yard par 5 with a dog leg to the left which bends at about 325 yards with bunkers spaced along the left for players who try to make the short cut. The green is very wide and rolling and on a high hump difficult to approach except from the front.

Another "toughie" is number 5 which is a dog leg to the left around a large pond and over 2 hills, with side hill lies likely unless the tee shot is well down the middle. The green is elevated with bunkers 100 yards out in front. The putting surface is smaller than average and slopes to center and front. The hole is a par 5, 520 yarder.

Number 9 is a sporty hole, though only 260 yards, par 4. The drive is on an angle across the corner of a large pond and the fairway rises on a sharp slope from the pond to the highly elevated green which is very large with a ridge across the center.

NUMBER 10 is of the same type with the fairway sloping off toward the pond on the right and the green located around the end of the pond and very close to it. This is a par 4, 380 yard hole with an approach across the corner of the pond unless the left side of the fairway is played.

Rates at Roselle are very reasonable. On weekdays the rate at the course claimed to be the highest point in Cook County is $1.75 for all day and a later afternoon special of $1.25 after 3:30 p.m. Saturdays, Sundays, and holiday rates are $3 and $2 after 3:30.

Roselle started as a private club in 1927. In 1940 it became a daily fee course and the operators until this year, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hogan, took over in 1949. Duerinc and Deluca are now the manager and co-manager respectively. (Sp

Black's To Represent Arlington Twilight Loop In Paddock Tourney

Black's Memorial Home remained in first place and will represent the Arlington Heights twilight golf league in the Paddock Tournament, August 19, at Roselle club. It was a close race with only 3½ points separating the first 4 teams.

Low gross honors were shared by D. Borgardt and W. McGregor. Low net was taken by Gail Webber and alternate Bud Rapp was low with 33 net. Birds were shot on 10 by D. Quigley and J. Andrup, the latter also getting one on 13 as did W. McGregor and R. Panek. Others were S. Luczak on 15, C. Kleinofen on 7, J. Rogers on 9, and R. Kreutz on 4.

To Reinstate Many Lapsed GI Policies

Thousands of World War II and post-Korea veterans who lost their 5-year term GI insurance since July 23, 1953, because they failed to pay either or both of the last two monthly premiums will be given an opportunity to reinstate their policies under a new law just signed by the president.

VA said it is searching its records for these cases, so it soon may send each former policyholder a reinstatement application with instructions on how to proceed.

Robert D. Beer, VA's regional manager in Illinois, "strongly" requested the affected veterans not to write or otherwise make inquiries about their cases for at least a month so as not to delay the checking process to the detriment of all veterans involved.

THE LAW which permits these veterans to reinstate such term policies is the survivors benefits act, signed by the president August 1, 1956. The GI insurance affected by the law are the 5-year term policies of national service life insurance, whether of the convertible World War II type or of the non-convertible post-Korea type.

Under the old law, which became effective July 23, 1953, these term policies could not be in a state of lapse at the end of the 5-year term period to qualify them for automatic renewal. (WUS

Off To Germany

Pvt. Larry R. Brewer, son of Mrs. Ruth M. Swantek, mounted route 2, Wilmette rd., Palatine, is scheduled to leave the U. S. August 15 for Europe as part of Operation Gyroscope, the army's unit rotation plan.

Brewer is a member of the 8th infantry division which is replacing the 9th infantry division in Germany.

A machine gunner in company E of the division's 13th regiment, Brewer entered the army in February 1956 and completed basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

At Great Lakes

Alois Landinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Josef Landinger of 505 S. Fernandez, Arlington Heights, is among those who graduated from recruit training July 28 at the naval training center, Great Lakes.

The 9 weeks of "boot camp" included drill and instruction in seamanship, gunnery, life saving, sea survival, boat handling, and the use of small arms.

Following 2 weeks leave, graduates will be assigned to shipboard duties or service schools depending on the qualifications each has demonstrated.

Hobo Summer In Europe

Coed Traipsing Thru Europe Has A 'Splurge' In Germany

by NANCY EMIG

As soon as our bus passed the border between Holland and Germany there was no doubt in our minds as to where one left off and the other began.

The bright cheerful houses of the Dutch with their orange tiled roofs, red brick, surrounded with many colored flowers changed to somber grey buildings with many showing the ravages of war.

After 10 years, it was most depressing and rather heart breaking to see ruins and rubble where homes had been. Of course, we saw much rebuilding and many fine new buildings have been completed.

WE STOPPED at Cologne and took a quick look at the famous Gothic Cathedral "Kohn." Then we were on our way to Bonn, the capital of Western Germany. In Bonn we visited the House of Parliament, saw the home of Conrad Adenauer, the Chancellor of Germany, and then made a tour through Beethoven's home.

Up early and boarded a steamer for our trip through the Rhine Valley.

We passed hundreds of massive old castles, watched the people working in the countless vineyards (all on steep hills), and passed Die Lorelei which is one of the most famous sights on the river.

The Lorelei is a huge cliff jutting out from the land and perhaps you have read the old German legend . . . beautiful mermaids were said to sing so enchantingly to passing sailors that they were bewitched into crashing their vessels on the rocks. This rock inspired Heinrich Heine to write the well known German song "Die Lorelei."

After a delightfully relaxing 5 hours on the river we landed at Rudesheim, a wonderfully picturesque little town that I'll never forget.

HERE WE decided to splurge and get a hotel room instead of staying in the usual hostel.

One of our group of 4 speaks German fluently (this studying in school really pays off, kids) and was able to get us a room with a German family for 4 marks apiece ($1.00).

It was really not a room at all but a "Hobo" Paradise,—huge soft beds with downy quilts called "puffs" and big plump pillows.

We even had a balcony overlooking some shadowy ruins.

After a wash-up we found a quiet little home-like restaurant where we simply sat and relaxed, listening to the fine music of an accordion and watching the people.

It was wonderful, just sitting there, without having to rush someplace or get back to a youth hostel (more about the latter sometime).

We were just ready to leave and call an end to a perfect evening when 2 G.I.'s, eager for word from home, and recognizing us as Americans, asked if they could join us. Well, natch.

They were stationed across the river in Bagan and after much talk we gathered up the 1 boy in the tour of 30 and set out to see the town.

AFTER FINDING a cellar-like place where we had a bottle of Rhine wine and listened to a one-man band, we sought out the "party" street of Rudesheim. It was a narrow, brightly lit, colorful, noisy, crowded, wonderful place. We were the only tourists and had a great evening with these real German people in their colorful costumes until the boys had to go back to camp. Believe me, it was an evening to be long remembered.

IN THE MORNING Frau Becker actually heated some water so that we all had a hot bath.

To date it has been difficult to even get a shower so that a hot bath was pure luxury.

Perhaps you have guessed that the hostels are not exactly luxurious.

For example, the one at Bonn was a very modern glass and brick structure just completed in May of this year. It was beautiful and clean with students from all over the world staying there. Once inside, however, you really rough it.

We had a stew, of sorts, hard roll and water for dinner after which we went to the kitchen to wash dishes.

If you are smart you make up your bed which has a straw-filled mattress before 10 p.m. because at that time the main switch is turned and "lights out."

The hostels have showers with icy cold water and there are, of course, 30 of us waiting our turn!

Jack Clark Host At Democratic Picnic

Jack Clark, Democratic committeeman of Wheeling township is sponsoring a picnic and dance at Buffalo House and Grove, Buffalo Grove, that is drawing favorable comment.

"We often hear about picnics held in the name of prominent party chieftains, but this one," says Clark, "is for both Republicans and Democrats who think they will enjoy an old fashioned picnic and dance."

The event is being held for the benefit of Wheeling Township Regular Democratic organization. Post office regulations forbid the announcement of prizes, but there will be a lot of entertainment for $1 admission charged.

Women More Careful, Have Fewer Accidents

Don't laugh at your wife because you think she's a scaredy-cat. The national safety council says feminine prudence and skill are playing a part in holding the accidental death toll of women to about half the toll of men!

More women than men were killed in falls in 1954 — the latest figure available. But the difference was not very great — 551. And in all the other 7 principal causes of accidental deaths, men out-numbered women.

Motor vehicle accidents killed 26,725 men, 8,861 women; falls, 9,610 men, 10,161 women; fire burns, 3,372 men, 2,711 women; drownings, 5,450 men, 884 women; railroad accidents 2,129 men, 487 women; firearms, 2,016 men, 265 women; poison gases, 881 men, 342 women, and poisons (except gas), 779 men, 560 women. Tell Plans For Fifth Annual Dairy Exhibits

An exhibit showing the results of an experiment to compare green chopping of pasture for dairy cows with conventional grazing methods will be one of the features of the fifth Annual Dairy Day at the University of Illinois college of agriculture on September 6.

This experiment involves 30 cows which were paired in two groups according to breed, age, stage of lactation, and level of production. One group is being fed chopped forage from half of a group of pastures made up of alfalfa, brome, ladino and alfalfa, timothy, ladino mixtures; while the other group is being pastured on the other half of the same fields.

BOTH GROUPS of cows on the test are being milked in the same barn by the same men and receive the same supplemental feed. Production level of the cows, rates of consumption of forage, carrying capacity of the pastures and recovery rates of the legume-grass mixtures are being studied in this first of a series of planned trials.

This is just one of the many exhibits planned for this year's big Dairy Day showing the practical application of the newest research work in the Department of Dairy science. A few of the other features which will be of extreme interest to dairymen are displays of what happens to feed in the digestive system of the cow, what causes swollen or caked udders in cows close to calving time, what the feed tag means, how to prevent fever and storing of bovine semen at room temperature.

VISITORS may start viewing the exhibits at 10 a.m. DST in room 414, Animal Sciences Laboratory building. Lunch will be served in Illini Grove at noon. After lunch additional exhibits at the dairy farm will be discussed.

Record Books Are Aid To Intelligent Dairymen

Successful dairymen make intelligent decisions about their business from the facts they get from their record books.

Fortunately, it's relatively easy to keep good records in the dairy business, says G. W. Harpestad, Extension dairy specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

If you want to keep complete records, you can join a Dairy Herd Improvement association. One operates in nearly every section of the state, Harpestad says.

EACH association employs a tester who spends one day a month on the farm weighing the milk from each cow and testing it for butterfat. He also weighs the feed and calculates the cost of the feed and the profit made by each cow.

Those who are interested in production records for their own use only may use the Owner-Sampler testing system.

This program, which usually operates in conjunction with D.H.I.A. program, is also available in most counties. In this program you weigh the milk and take the samples yourself. The D.H.I.A. tester then runs the butterfat test on the milk and calculates the records. Usually only production records are kept. The Owner-Sampler type of record is a private record, and no use is made of it outside of the herd.

THE SIMPLEST type of record-keeping is the Weigh-A-Day-A-Month program. As the name implies, you simply weigh the milk produced by each cow on one day each month. In some areas in the state, you can join the other dairymen and hire someone to calculate your records. If there is no organized group, you can do so yourself with very little effort.

If you are interested in getting started in one of these programs, contact your county farm adviser to see what program is available in your county.

Good Tilths In Soils Produce Higher Yields

Soils having good tilth hold more moisture and produce higher yields than soils which are deficient in organic matter.

Many farmers have observed that crops suffer less during short periods of drouth when the soil is crumbly rather than cloddy.

For additional information about your soil, see a representative of your Soil Conservation district in the Farm Bureau building, Arlington Heights.

Emil Pfingsten, Roselle, chairman of the district board, says that farmers attach considerable value to the inventory of their soil resources which is given them by the soil conservationist.

POOR TILTH—soil sample from the plow layer of a field farmed to a corn, corn, corn, soybean rotation for more than 40 years (actual size).

Corn Farmers Should Apply For Cribs Now

Corn farmers planning to get price support loans on their 1956 crop are reminded to prepare now for additional crib space.

This advice came from the Illinois Agricultural association.

"WHETHER you should build a crib between now and corn picking time depends upon the kind of farming operation you have," the IAA said.

"If you're a tenant farmer, you may find it's more economical to erect a pole-and-picket corn crib at costs ranging from 15 cents per bushel of storage space to 40 cents a bushel," they continued.

"But if you're a farm owner and operator, you may find long-range advantages in building more permanent types of corn cribs at costs ranging above $1 per bushel of storage space."

Noting that the spread between harvest-time cash grain prices for corn usually is more than 15 cents a bushel, the article urges farmers to store grain on their farms in order to get Commodity Credit Corporation loans.

"FARMERS historically have built low-cost corn cribs and paid for them in a short time with extra income earned on corn crops," the IAA pointed out.

While a 15-cent-a-bushel corn crib is economical, it has its disadvantages, according to a state Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation official in Springfield quoted by the farm group.

Keep Children Off Tractors, Warns Professor

Who's to blame when a child is hurt or killed whie riding with dad on the tractor?

Actually it's dad's fault, but maybe mother should share a little of the blame, says O. L. Hogsett, safety specialist at the University of Illinois. Unfortunately, placing the blame doesn't repair a broken body or bring a child back to life.

CHILDREN get such a thrill from riding on tractors that dad may think he's being good to the youngsters when he lets them tag along. Maybe he's done it dozens of times before with no serious consequences.

But look at the Illinois record last year: More than 100 persons were injured by falling off or being run over by tractors, and more than 50 were killed. Many of these were small children.

So before you decide to be "good" to your youngsters and let them ride on the tractor, you'd better think twice about the possible outcome.

Urges End Of 2-Day Live Stock Marketing Habit

A major weakness in the live stock marketing system is a trend toward 1 and 2-day markets.

Although live stock markets are open every day of the week (The Packers & Stockyards Act designates 260 market days a year) farmers generally are observing less than a third of these days in their marketing plans.

The bulk of shipments (from 60 to 75 per cent) arrive on Mondays. At some markets, Tuesdays and Wednesdays get a half-hearted play. Friday and Saturday markets are almost nil.

No one likes this system which has developed more out of habit than necessity.

Producers don't like it because of violent price fluctuations for livestock. Packers don't like it because of an uneconomical use of labor and equipment. Truckers, railroads and stockyards find their facilities taxed to capacity during the first part of the week, hardly paying the taxes in the latter part of the week.

THERE IS A real need for producers to develop a system of more orderly marketing of all grades and species of live stock. Flattening out the peaks and valleys of live stock receipts during the week, and the month and year as well, could help prevent [illegible]uts and ruinous live stock prices.

with Your Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

This week is 4-H Fair week.

We'll see you at the Arlington Park Race Track, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 10, 11 and 12. Exhibits will be on display during the entire fair and a good program has been arranged for all 3 days.

Pay your tribute to this fine group of young people sometime during these 3 days.

ABOUT A WEEK ago Henry Eichholz, vice president of the Cook County Farm Bureau brought me my first home grown tomatoes for this season. The quality and flavor were excellent.

You can purchase home grown tomatoes at many of our roadside stands.

Recently I have had several calls from home gardeners relative to diseases their tomatoes may have. I have a circular No. 683 released by the University of Illinois, extension service entitled "Tomato Diseases and Insect Pests," which gives the description and control of many of the common insects and diseases. You can obtain a copy by contacting my office.

SMALL GRAIN

Some excellent wheat yields have been reported this year. The past week or 2 I have talked with Emil Freise, Faustin Zeller, Wilmer Rohlwing, Emil Pfingsten and Xaver Schmid. They have all reported excellent yields. Fifty bushels per acre was not an uncommon yield. With proper soil treatment and good weather (over which we have very little control) outstanding results can sometimes be obtained.

For those who intend to sow wheat for fall, now would be a good time to get your soil tested. If you do not know how this is done, directions and procedure can be obtained at this office. It takes 3 weeks to get the results, so do not put it off too long.

I visited with Henry Schrage in Schaumburg township recently. He was combining oats. His oats were clean and heavy. He was quite surprised at both the quality and yield and so was I. In June we had quite a lot of hot dry weather and the oat crop suffered. However, with cool weather in July and the occasional showers things turned out better than we had anticipated.

MAIZE

I had a very interesting visit with Herman Volkening on his farm in Schaumburg township one day last week. I learned as much or more on this farm visit than I gave Herman in return.

Herman has some maize growing on his farm. He brought it in from the West. Last year he had only 2 rows. The yield was very high. He had enough seed so that this year he has considerable more. He thinks it may be a good way to cut down on corn acreage or stay within a corn allotment.

Maize grows about 3 feet tall, very drought resistant and has a beautiful head. Steers like the grain and do well on it.

Western Corn Belt Shows New Crop Deterioration

The western part of the Corn Belt continued to show increasing crop deterioration in the last few days of July.

Lack of rain coupled with low subsoil moisture hurt many fields of corn in central, northwest and southeast Iowa and in much of Nebraska and part of South Dakota.

In Nebraska, except for a narrow strip along the Missouri river and in irrigated fields, corn was heading for failure for the third year in a row.

RATHER HEAVY rains occurred in some dry areas in Iowa, particularly in the northwest, but many fields were beyond much help, having already been stunted and blasted beyond redemption.

In Illinois, Minnesota and Wisconsin, however, rains of 1 to 2 inches probably added 5 bushels per acre to an already bumper crop.

Soybeans promise to be a tremendous crop.

Large acreages in Illinois and Minnesota have had plenty of moisture and yields will undoubtedly be high. Even in areas of short moisture, soybeans are able to thrive much better than corn. They will make a fair yield where corn may fail completely.

Continued dry seasons in Nebraska, Kansas and Western Iowa have given a tremendous boost to irrigation equipment.

When fields side by side can have a yield differential of 100 bushels of corn due to irrigation, more farmers will turn to irrigation even at a considerable investment. This added expense of farming under irrigation is another factor tending toward a larger farm size as an economical and efficient unit.

SOME MISCELLANEOUS items of crop interest:

Red top harvest is in progress in Richland, Wayne and Clay counties in southern Illinois. Red top is used in grass mixtures particularly on less productive soils. The demand for this seed has been gradually decreasing due to increasing of fertilizer applications and development of newer grass and legume pasture crops.

Mankato, Minnesota, now boasts the largest soybean extraction plant in the world. This acco[illegible]with an 18 per cent soybean [illegible]ge increase in Minnesota thi[illegible]son.

The Red River Valley between Minnesota and North Dakota has excellent prospects for a big potato crop this season. This area has long been noted for its potato production.

Early Elberta Peaches To Market About August 1

Early Elberta peaches from southern Illinois arrived on markets about August 1, says Ross A. Kelly, University of Illinois fruit and vegetable marketing specialist.

Harvest will move north, the heaviest harvest coming about the middle of August in central Illinois and about the last of August and first of September in Northern areas.

Elbertas, a favorite variety, make up about 75 per cent of the Illinois peach crop.

GROWING conditions have been favorable this year, and the Illinois peach crop is expected to be 750,000 bushels. Growers say this year's crop has good quality because the fruit is free from insect and disease damage.

While peaches are abundant this summer, why not make some jam for the winter? Peach jam will accent a dozen different dishes during the day — from hot buttered biscuits in the morning to ice cream or cake in the evening.

To make peach jam, wash the fruit and dip into boiling water for half a minute. Plunge briefly into cold water. Remove skins, slice fruit and discard pits. Allow three-fourths to one pound of sugar to each pound of prepared fruit.

ARRANGE FRUIT and sugar in alternate layers and let stand three or four hours, or until some of the juice is extracted. Stir and heat slowly until sugar dissolves. Bring to a boil and cook, stirring constantly, until the fruit is clear and the jam is thickened. Pour into sterilized jars and seal.

New, Easy Way To Control Flies On Beef Cattle

Purina Research has come up with a new and easy way to control flies on beef cattle. Purina Back Scratcher will handle 50 steers.

Five active proven killers, including DDT, the Crag repellent, lindane, and Rotenone, are combined in Purina Back Scratch Concentrate to give fast, effective killing power. Costs only about 1c per head per week.

Stop in and see how these fine products will work on your place to help increase profits.

The funeral of Dr. Best, held at 2 p.m., Sunday, August 5, on the lawn between his fine residence and the M. E. church, was the largest gathering on such an occasion ever known in this vicinity. The audience was estimated at 1,500 to 1,600 people, all anxious to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of an esteemed friend.

Bensenville—George Finke has finished threshing in this corner 10 jobs, all threshed out in the field. This club was up-to-date; all had racks, so they only had 14 men.

Milk must be very scarce in the city. Milkmen have been here 2 or 3 days to get milk.

Itasca—The total votes cast in our Itasca precinct 76. Democrat 10, Prohibition 1 and 7 spoiled ballots and balance 58 Republicans.

"I read an article written by C. A. Franzen in last week's Register, and I want him to know I sympathize and think as he does. While I do not care to entirely forget the land or the German language of our forefathers, still let us be true to our country and be good, loyal, American citizens and teach our children to be such, and if we are willing that the older members of our church should listen to the language they love best, every Sunday forenoon. Will they not tolerate a sermon in the language of our country, once in 2 weeks, for the benefit of the younger members of our church?"—Aug. C. Goeddeke.

Schaumburg — Boys, fix up your rig and put your white vest on or else ladies won't go along to the Old Settlers' picnic.

Harry Schoppe gave extra weight to all his customers Monday, and he had good cause for so doing, as a little boy arrived at his home that morning.

Paul Patten has the best automobile owned in Palatine. It is a handsome Buick machine that can hold its own with any of them. It is propelled by a 22-horse power engine with double cylinder.

Chas. Dean drove The Broncho at Cleveland last week, in a free-for-all pace smashing 3 world's records for pacing mares and the last heat was the fastest third heat ever paced by any horse. Dean's training of The Broncho has been the most remarkable thing of the surf. When he took her, she was wild, nervous, mean, ready to strike or bite anyone who came near her and tried to do all the sorts of bad things known to bad horses.

Hot, hotter, hottest. We can't remember a time during the past 50 years, when we had 6 weeks of steady oppressively hot weather like July and August so far this year. June was dry and colder than May. How do you account for it?

The church people along the line of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road filed so many protests against the running of Sunday excursion trains that the management of the line decided to turn down all such business. Last week a lot of Bill Sunday's converts petitioned the St. Paul to run a train to Fulton so they could attend the Sunday meeting. They were informed that on their own petition such trains had been abolished and no exceptions could be made.

Palatine—To the Editors—Your articles of recent date regarding the actions of certain young ladies in the village are highly commendable and while there may be serious exceptions made to your suggestions, it is bound to bear fruit and to be of service to them in the years to come.

The axiom, "As the twig is bent so must the tree grow," is quite applicable to the human family and should be a matter of deep concern to parents who have the future interests of their offspring at heart.

But, Mr. Editor, would it not be well to throw the small fish back into the stream and deal more severely with the larger ones whose sense of propriety makes them harder to catch and whose adroitness oftimes makes their conduct impervious. If it is not lady-like for girls to make a practice of roaming the streets and hanging around the Railroad Depot, how much worse is it for some of the older ones to make use of the railroad coaches by meeting their sweethearts (?) in an accidental (?) manner, leaving their wife, or as it may be their husband at home, thus enjoying the afternoon out, and under "shopping" pretenses. After a very sociable time enroute home, they make use of both exits of the coaches in order to avoid home publicity. Such conditions are nevertheless existing right in our midst, and until such misdemeanors are remedied, those of the younger ones must else be overlooked for the time being.

It matters not of the bending of the twig if the social insects are not sought with a vigilance to avoid the infesting of the younger set. I would say, i-e, "strip the bark from the old trees under suspicion, expose the inner rottenness and moral decay and the younger ones will flourish under moral conditions and the social atmosphere will be purer and more wholesome.

Editor's note—The name of the author of the above is on file at the office where it can be learned by anyone who takes an exception to the above for personal reasons. It will not be given to curiosity seekers.

This communication provides a lot of food for thought to every person in Palatine. Regardless of whether the facts will bear out the claims of the writer, one thing is certain that there is a lot of talk about town about "unfaithful" wives and husbands. The boys and girls who have been taught to abhor all such things hear on all sides stories of what is alleged to "be going on." They see people talked about in the best society, in church and other places. For the purity of the boys and girls of this town it is up to the parents to either stop the reports or prove the facts and ostracize the guilty ones. The good name of Palatine likewise demands it. It is either stop the scandal or expose the rottenness.

The village boards of both Palatine and Arlington Heights are expected to take action in the very near future by the passage of proper ordinances which will authorize the village boards to appoint 6 men as home guards. The purpose of this guard will be to protect the local banks in case of 2 wholesale robberies and be ready upon such other occasions when bandits shall visit the villages.

Palatine's motor cop may be a few citizens who hope he will be. There are a number of the businessmen who think he should be and there are a few, very few, who are doing their best to see that he is. Their only grievance against the cop is the fact that following orders given to him when he originally took the job he is showing no favorites, letting the arrest slips fall where they may.

Two new stretches of 40 foot concrete pavement were assured to the motorists of Cook county yesterday when the county board awarded contracts for the paving of Rand road and North avenue. The new wide pavements will afford striking comparisons with the 18-foot pavements which are now in use throughout the county.

The work of numbering houses has begun by the board and it will not be long before residents of Bensenville will receive their mail properly addressed and we hope properly delivered at their homes.

The new boilers arrived last Friday for the new Bensenville high school building and are being placed as work on the outside walls is begun.

Cal Pidgeon and his orchestra will continue its engagement every Wednesday evening at the Arlington Ballroom.

Chas. Schoppe, the veteran thresher of Palatine, whose machine in the earlier years of this century was kept in operation from July until snow time, sold his outfit this week to S. A. Merrick of Hanover township, who is threshing with it today.

Mr. Schoppe purchased the machine in 1900 and operated it 33 years. It has been idle the past 3 years, and when hauled out on the road appeared to be in as good condition as in its hey days—that is the way that Schoppes keep their farm tools.

Miss Viola Glade and Elmer Rhode, both of Palatine, were married at the home of Rev. Pfotenhauer, Schaumburg, Sunday evening.

Arlington Heights tax levy Monday night hit an all time high but it is not expected to boost the individual tax bills. The increase of $10,000 in the levy will be paid by new taxpayers or increased valuations. The taxpayers will be asked to provide $74,190 for the operation of the municipal government the current year.

The village of Mt. Prospect and particularly those residents of that municipality who reside north of Central road are asking the Wheeling highway commissioner to pay $400 from current funds to reimburse that municipality for moneys expended for repairing unpaved streets lying in Wheeling township.

Among those newly married are Mary Ann Eiler and Mel Laseke and Irene Doyle and Joseph Firnbach.

Prospect Heights widely publicized 10th Anniversary Fete opens Friday evening.

Mt. Prospect Board of Education is in the same position as many other taxing bodies who have suddenly discovered that bond issues are not sufficient for building plans. Mt. Prospect wil have to go without the school addition unless the voters give their approval to an additional bond issue of $45,000.

The more practical sites for the new school building will be presented to Palatine Elementary School Board of Education next Wednesday. It is understood that the architects have selected 4.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

When I wake up in the morning in Harbor Springs, Mich., I need only to raise myself up on one elbow to look out of our bedroom window, through the pines, to the bay which sprawls out below us. Each morning the surface of the lake is as smooth and clear as pale blue ice and at night we are lulled to sleep by the sound of wavelets washing gently up on the beach. What a vacation we are having at the Menonaqua Beach club! But, first let me tell you about our trip up to this beautiful spot between Petoskey and Harbor Springs, almost 700 miles from home.

If you don't take the ferry from Milwaukee to Ludington (which is what we would like to do next time) and you want your car with you, the best way to get up here is around the tip of Lake Michigan to Benton Harbor, then across to Kalamazoo where you pick up road 131 and go north to Petoskey. Of course, that trip through South Chicago and Gary is the worst part of the journey especially if you happen to hit it at the "rush hour." We decided that the way to avoid this crowded time was to get up early in the morning, before people started traveling to work.

IN FACT, we got carried away with the idea of an early start and left home at 2:00 a.m.! However, it really was a very successful plan—the streets through South Chicago, Gary and Michigan City were deserted and in 4 hours from when we left we were in Kalamazoo. (Incidentally, we had all gone to bed at 8:00 o'clock, so we were rested for the trip.)

Megan and Bridget were so surprised to find themselves in the car—we had carried them down in their bathrobes and they had gone right on sleeping on the mattress in the rear of the station wagon—to say nothing of being in a different town. While the girls dressed, we drove to a nice place for our breakfast.

ALL THE WAY from Kalamazoo north, the country grew increasingly spectacular. Part of the time we drove over rolling hills from whose crests you could see only lush green meadows dotted with farm houses. Then again we seemed to be cutting through the middle of a dense forest of firs and underbrush so thick as to appear to be impenetrable.

As we neared Petoskey, I thought any minute we would come up to the top of a hill and be able to see the bay beyond us. When at last we did, it was a thrilling sight. The water of the bay was a deep blue changing to blue-green as it spread out into Lake Michigan. Below us, at the edge of the bay, we could see the tiny house tops and church spires of Petoskey.

WHEN WE REACHED the town, we asked directions to the Menonaqua Beach club and within a very short time came to a road which turned off from the highway into a forest of birch and pine trees. After following this narrow, winding road for a mile we came upon the parking area and up the walk, the big brown frame lodge. After registering and meeting our charming host, Mr. Fenton, we were taken down the walk, past the "wishing well," to the annex—a similar brown frame building with a lovely porch, living room with a fireplace and bedrooms and suites of rooms on the first and second floors. We love our rooms overlooking the bay. Needless to say, we were no sooner unpacked than we were on the beach where, to our happy surprise, we found many children the ages of Megan and Bridget—so they've certainly not lacked companionship. Because the lodge is small and everyone makes an effort to be friendly, you feel at home immediately—then too Virginia and Howdy and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, have been just wonderful to us—it's so pleasant to share the fun of a vacation with good friends.

I'm sitting on the beach and—oh, here come our lunch trays on which there will be hamburgers for charcoal grilling (the grill is smoldering right now.) So off to the grill and goodbye for now.

My love,

Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

THIS TRIP to the southland has been a thing of many moods. Ordinarily I have little patience with any moods except my own. After all, my moods have good and sound reasons behind them. Other moods just make me look up words like psychoneurotic, psychosis, psychosomatic which are easy as they are all right there together in the dictionary.

All of them mean approximately the same thing which is mentally deranged. In a nice way. Of course. The children may not be exactly wacky but they are very mental. And, they easily become quite nicely deranged. Particularly if they are crossed in any way.

THE MOOD IN Florida has been almost a constant one of wistfulness. The people across the street from our temporary abode have a swimming pool. If my young are not allowed to be immersed in the chlorinated water constantly, they stand outside of the kitchen door looking wistful. They are also wistful vocally. This is harder to bear.

Another home a little farther up the block keeps a nice supply of popsicles in the freezer. It matters not that the patient woman of the house has just doled out largess to all and sundry. Fifteen minutes later a little group forms outside her kitchen door. They are mine and they are wistful.

RIGHT NOW I have one who has discovered false fingernails. A little girl in the neighborhood has flase fingernails. It is in vain that I keep pointing out that hands wearing false fingernails look like they belong to a combination of Vampira, Dracula and a she werewolf. To my wistful one, it is the ultimate.

She will not have lived until her hands too look as though they had dipped heavily into a bucket of red paint. My resistance is wearing thin. I can always make her walk slightly to the rear, squaw fashion, and pretend that I don't know her.

FOR MY MOOD, which is more one of wishful thinking, I have the store windows. Each window has a nice sign that proclaims to all that a gigantic sale is in progress. They must get rid of their summer stock which differs very little from their fall stock. But, the savings are fantastic and the fashions are wonderful.

What makes me broody is that I have no savings for the fashions. Cruel, cruel fate.

THE FENCE POST

A Pleasure

Please accept our thanks and appreciation for the support of your newspapers in publicizing the activities of our Army Reserve unit at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin, during the early part of July.

The page from your issue of July 19 with pictures and the excellent writeup by Tom Brennan has been forwarded to the Commanding General 85th Infantry Division, along with a copy of this letter, so that he and his staff will be aware of the splendid cooperation extended by you and your staff.

IT WAS A pleasure to have had Tom with us at Camp McCoy and I hope we were able to make his stay a pleasant one. It is further hoped he will be able to cover our Annual Unit Training Phase again next week.

My best personal regards to Mr. Paddock Sr. He no doubt will recal the National Guard Press Lift to Camp Ripley, Minnesota, in 1953, and the "jeep" rides given him and Mr. Fred Fulle. Their driver on those rides was Captain Henry J. Prochaska of Mt. Prospect who is now a Major and the operations and training officer of our Reserve Unit. I fully remember the humorous article published by Mr. Paddock concerning the trip.

Information, Please?

Saw the article in your paper about elm tree disease and am writing to tell you that we lost 2 of our American elms, and now are anxious to know whether it was the disease or something else that caused them to die. Would like some information on it, and would appreciate it very much if you let use hear from you. Better still, if someone interested would call to see the trees, I think they could tell when they see them what causd them to die.

Hoping to be seeing you real soon; would be ever so thankful to you.

LAST WEEK'S HEADLINES

Resume of front page news that appeared in various editions of Paddock Publications and other newspapers of the area that will keep readers informed on headline news of their neighbors.

ROLLING MEADOWS

Kimball Hill & Associates and Palatine-Rolling Meadows school district 15 have completed contract negotiations for a second school for Rolling Meadows. The Hill firm will donate an 11-acre site and pay for a quarter of the cost of a 12-room school, the district to pay the remainder. Construction is expected to get under way this month.

PROSPECT HEIGHTS

A modern swimming pool and bath house for Prospect Heights are almost a certainty. A total of $61,700 in pool bonds have been sold so far. Before construction can begin, 66 per cent of the estimated $100,000 cost must be raised.

PALATINE

Palatine's first off-street parking lot is expected to get a big play after the village board last week lowered the daily fee from 25 cents to 10 cents. Commuters had been boycotting the lot. With the lowering of the fee, 2-hour parking signs will go up along residential blocks now used for commuter parking.

WHEELING

By far the largest number of voters ever to cast ballots in a local school election streamed through Wheeling school last week to approve a $45,000 bond issue and school site adjacent to Dunhurst Heights. In all 678 residents of school district 21 voted.

A mid-month starting date for construction of Wheeling's first modern shopping center was announced last week by Ray and Glenn Miller, of Wheeling Shopping Center, Inc.

In the planning stage for 8 months, the market and medical center will occupy Dundee rd. frontage between the Wheeling State Bank and Wille ave. Included will be a post office, medical building and 8 stores.

Wanted: A Theater

I would like to bring to the attention of this community a problem about its teenagers.

No, I am not writing about a group of hoodlums or delinquents.

On the contrary, I am referring to a group of teen agers who have the right idea. Too many times adults are heard saying "What is this younger generation coming to" and "That's the younger generation for you."

A GROUP of dramatically-minded teens decided that rather than idle away their free summer hours they would stage a play.

They wanted to do something worthwhile where they could learn something and at the same time provide a little home-grown community entertainment. The kids got together and started to work by choosing both the play and the director. At present the cast is rehearsing and planning on opening August 24 and 25.

That is where the problem enters the picture. These enthusiastic teens can't seem to find a place to hold the play. Because they don't have a big organization backing them, they don't have much of a treasury with which to rent a decent auditorium. In fact, they can't find a place to hold their production for love or money!

I ASK YOU, is this the way ambitious teen-age efforts should be met by the community? Does this lack of cooperation encourage further activity of this sort? NO.

I thought that the schools and churches of the community were working for their youth, not against it. This attitude only brings teenagers to look at each other with a puzzled expression and ask "What is this older generation coing to?" This is a problem with the adults, not the teens.

If any of you who sympathize with this group have an idea as to how they can solve this problem, please call me at CL3-0689.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

How easy it is to be miserable! If we start to look about us for trouble, misfortune, hardship, it is always at hand. The mail may be late, or an important letter not come. We see the neighbor's new car which we can not afford. Our clothes are all last year's, or perhaps the year before last's. We can brood about these things, feel abused, even ashamed. Trouble can really weigh us down!

But is it real trouble? As long as we have good food, warm, good clothing, a comfortable home, reasonably good health, and even a small measure of security, we should all be as happy as larks. Why, then, be miserable?

PERHAPS the greatest causes of misery are envy, pride, and self love. Let's take a look at ourselves. Just how much do we deserve from life?

To answer that, we must first think about what we have accomplished. Have we contributed to the welfare of our community? Do we worship God as we should, and try, earnestly, each day, to live according to His commandments?? Do we indulge in costly bad habits? Have we made a better mousetrap, that all the world should come to our door?

Have we tried to invest our talents, so as to get "other ten talents?" Have we continued to improve our minds, our abilities, our personalities, knowledge, outlook on life, understanding of our fellow men?

OR HAVE WE used all of our time thinking about ourselves, worrying about what other people think, pitying ourselves because we do not have what others have, yet making no all out effort to earn those things? Have we been careful about our food, our rest, what we drink and how much? Have we been temperate in all our habits?

Perhaps if we would just stop and think, we would find we have gotten much more out of life than we have deserved. And perhaps we would be happier if we did not envy and blame others for the happiness we do not have. Misery is pretty much self made; and happiness as well. If we are not happy, we have somehow missed the boat.

Truck Roadeo

The 14th Annual Illinois Truck Roadeo and Motor Equipment Show will be held at the International Amphitheatre Annex in Chicago, August 24 and 25.

Sponsored by the central motor freight association of Illinois, the roadeo competition pits champion professional truck drivers, winners in their respective company fleets, against each other, with the winners in the various classes crowned as state champions. (C

Something entirely new has just been made available for used cars. It's exactly like insurance except there is no amount deducted and paid by you before work begins. This policy covers all basic mechanical repairs, in bonafide franchised dealer repair shops anywhere in the country without competitive bids — everything paid for you.

This is not a gimmick — an independent company comes out and inspects each car, makes sure it's perfect, and then issues a policy to cover repairs for one year. You can renew this policy if you'd like at the end of the year if the car isn't over four years old. This is actually better than a new car guarantee.

We think it's something to celebrate. And to help get acquainted with the many new people in the community, we have decided to make AUGUST the BIGGEST MONTH IN OUR HISTORY – by offering OUTRIGHT BARGAINS, LONG DEALS and LOW PRICES!

Here are just a few examples. We need cars so badly we've actually gone out and bought them from other dealers just for this sale.

IN THE SHADOW OF THE STEEPLE

Koshare Indians Interpret Dances

The Koshare Indian dancers are members of a Boy Scout Explorer Post at La Junta, Colo. They are said to be the most authentic interpreters of Indian dances in the country today.

They dance everywhere, on television, under the special auspices of the U. S. Navy for personnel at sea, for conventions and conferences, on tour, and in their summer and winter ceremonials at La Junta.

TO QUALIFY for Koshares, a boy who is ready for senior scouting must first produce his school grades and he must continue to hold fairly high averages. Then his scouting record is considered. And then he has a chance to demonstrate his ability to dance or learn to dance.

The spirit behind the Koshares is a genial hard-working man named "Buck" Burshears, whose interest in Indian dancing started at Colorado College in the early '30's.

The Indians were losing touch with their ancient culture. Most of the young ones, discouraged by discrimination and deprivation, had no interest in traditional customs or practices. The older ones were dying and passing their memories on to one. Boys, of course, are always interested in dressing up like Indians. Buck Burshears began to build a group of Indian dancers and sought to discover the men who would teach him the almost forgotten dances.

THE KOCHARES began their early ceremonials not quite 25 years ago. They make their own costumes, build their own equipment for the various dances and settings. And they practice music and dances. As their tours have been extended, they have developed a museum of Indian lore at La Junta. It is called the Koshare Kiva, built on authentic pueblo architectural patterns.

The Kiva has a reasonable curio shop, stocked mostly with Indian and 'Mexican goods) and very little junk). If you're going that way, they offer a discount to Scouting families. We were asked if we were in Scouting not because I looked like a Scout father but because Mrs. McGill was wearing some jewelry of her own manufacture.

Also, if you're going west, a post card to the Koshares, La Junta, Colorado, will obtain a copy of their schedule for the rest of the summer and fall.

Of course, a group like this has done some fine things for La Junta in a "chamber of commerce" way of thinking. People stop to see the Kiva and they tell their friends about the Koshares and La Junta.

THEY HAVE DONE fine things for La Junta in a character building way also. Here were probably a hundred boys who work hard every Monday night. They are preserving an almost lost aspect of American culture and history. Scouting groups over the country are beginning to develop Indian dancing groups. Buck Burshears rejoices in that although it means that this group no longer does simple dances but must work out the great mass dances.

Even the Indians, rediscovering thei heritage, come to La Junta to their heritage, come to La Junta to ents knew: (B10

Poison Ivy War May Be Waged In Back Yards

A plant with the jaw-breaking name of Toxicodendron radicans is the villain of many an unhappy backyard drama. This horticultural Peck's Bad Boy is more commonly known as poison ivy and he's often at his orneriest on country acreage just converted into home sites.

W. Havnes, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co., points out that in areas where roots were not completely removed poison ivy frequently is hard to suppress on the new lawn. Its vigorous roots will often develop the noxious greenery even though covered with new top soil. On the surface, it will compete energetically with your thrifty new green lawn.

Spraying the foliage with 2,4-D will control poison ivy but it usually requires two or more treatments to achieve complete kill. Caution is in order too. Too liberal applications may damage adjacent trees and shrubs.

The poison ivy that entwines trees is a special problem that calls for a special approach. Spraying with hormone type weed killers will do the trick if you can reach a major portion of the leaves. Another way to attack tree-climbing ivy is to cut off the vine at the base and treat the cut ends with the weed killer. Then, after several months, the clinging plants should be pulled off the trees. Removal will be easier and much safer after the vines have dried out. Heavy gloves should be worn and great caution used to avoid contact. Some people have higher resistance, but no one is really immune. (DL

Illini Library Has Oldest Papers In State

The largest collection of Illinois newspapers found anywhere is in the stacks of the University of Illinois library and the University's Illinois historical survey.

In this collection are 23,000 bound newspaper volumes; many single and unbound papers; and 6,000 microfilm spools with 1,000 newspaper pages on each.

Papers date back to 1814. The library also has out-of-state and foreign newspapers, some back to the 1700s.

MOST OF THE newspapers published before 1880 are in better condition than papers of the early 20th century. The earlier 19th century publications were printed on all-rag or cloth paper. New methods of newspaper production caused a switch to cheaper pulp, now used for most printing purposes.

Items printed on all-rag paper can last for almost indefinite periods if not abused or damaged, Prof. Iben says. Pulp paper decays easily.

A photo-copy of the oldest Illinois newspaper — Kaskaskia Illinois Herald of December 13, 1814—is in the Library. The Herald began publication earlier that year.

A 1665 COPY of the London Gazette is the oldest issue in the Library collection. Complete files of the London Times and New York Times are also available. The London Times section begins in 1785.

The University's newspaper collection was established in 1917 when President Edmund Janes James saw the need for a central file of Illinois newspapers. It was—and still is—difficult to get copies of 19th century papers, but a continuing collection of 20th century items has been built up. The Library now regularly receives 600 papers—about one-third of all Illinois dailies and weeklies—many other American papers, and 12 foreign dailies.

Install Cabinet In Wasted Space Of Bedroom Wall

If your bathroom is short of storage, why not make use of the wasted wall space above the toilet tank and have a small cabinet made for the spot?

An attractive cabinet is easily made with Marlite predecorated hardboard and a framework of wood strips. This paneling is decorated in a variety of plain colors, marble patterns and wood grains and is protected by a surface of baked plastic.

The Marlite can be joined to the framework with quick setting contact cement. Pieces of the same paneling can serve as sliding doors. If the back panel is applied with the predecorated side exposed, it will not have to be finished. Similarly, the bottom may be placed with its prefinished side up. Exposed back surfaces and edges may be painted.

Shelves of glass or wood can be used, supported by wood strips bonded to the cabinet sides. (DL

At Illinois

Miss Martha Zepp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Zepp, former Mt. Prospect residents for 15 years, now living in Park Ridge, was recently named on the faculty of the University of Illinois as an instructor in oboe and woodwind chamber music.

Miss Zepp, having graduated in June with a double major in piano and oboe from the Eastman school of Music of the University of Rochester, N. Y., had the additional distinction of being awarded the performer's certificate, one of the highest awards given by the school. The awarding of this certificate was based in part on her solo performance with the Eastman-Rochester symphony last fall.

Besides her active teaching schedule, Miss Zepp has been elected a member of the faculty woodwind quintet, which is planning a tour of the middle west for the coming season. She will also be working on her master's degree, majoring in piano. (CC

HOME COMFORT EQUIPMENT before you buy!

America's biggest line of automatic heating and cooling equipment offers everything needed to make your home luxuriously comfortable all year round. Oil and gas-fired furnaces and boilers, with or without provision for summer cooling, fuel-saving oil and gas burners, air conditioning units, all of highest quality and proved economy. Wide range of models and capacities meets every requirement.

Winkler heating and cooling equipment is installed by factory-trained experts—your warranty of a satisfactory installation.

You don't have to buy a new furnace to have summer cooling

If you have a warm air furnace, you already have half of a summer cooling installation. Your present duct-work can be used to circulate cool, dehumidified air from a Winkler Cooling Coil. If you heat with steam or hot water, a Winkler Cooling Coil and Blower will do the job. In either case, the Winkler Condenser Unit is located outdoors, for quieter, more efficient operation.

Part-time Jobs Aid College Students

High school graduates who have hesitated about attending college because of a lack of funds will be encouraged to learn that they can earn good money in part-time jobs while a student.

"Hourly rates paid on a part-time basis continue to help the college student defray a good share of his expense," according to Kenneth Conway, director of DePaul university placement bureau.

He said a survey of actual job placements of students during the past academic year shows that men were being paid an average beginning rate of $1.41 an hour. The average beginning hourly rate paid to women was $1.32 an hour. Rates ranged from a minimum of $1.25 an hour to $2 an hour for men, while women were paid from $1 to $2. Most employers grant rate increases for good work performance. Summer employment further supplements the student income.

"Most DePaul students who are employed work an average of 20 to 24 hours each week. If they exceed that amount, they begin to have serious difficulty in maintaining their scholastic standing," said Conway. (CC

At Arkansas

Donald Robert Butts, a 1956 graduate of the Arlington Heights senior high school, has been notified that he is the winner of a scholarship which may be taken at the college of his choice. The scholarship was granted by the Henry L. Doherty educational foundation, a Cities Service supported organization.

Butts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil W. Butts of Arlington Heights. His father is employed by Cities Service Pipe Line Co.

Butts will attend Arkansas university with the aid of his foundation scholarship. He is one of 62 boys and girls across the nation who are 1956 foundation recipients for the first time. (CC

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Banking School

George E. Jacobsmeyer, assistant cashier, American National Bank and Trust company of Chicago will leave August 19 for 2 weeks attendance at the school of banking at the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

Mr. Jacobsmeyer, a commercial loaning officer with the American National bank will be in his first year at the school which requires 2 weeks resident attendance each year for 3 years to earn the certificate of graduation. Throughout the year between resident sessions students are required to do extensive work involving problems in all phases of banking.

The school is sponsored by the central states conference, bankers associations in 16 mid-western states. Attendance this year will approximate 1,050 bankers, ranging from junior officers and department managers to presidents, vice presidents and board chairmen of banks from 39 states. (BB

45 Years Service

Max H. Fritzsche, 451 E. Colfax ave., Palatine, retired Wednesday, Aug. 1, from Commonwealth Edison company after nearly 45 consecutive years of service in accounting departments. Assistant to the revenue accountant since 1945, he started in 1911 as a bookkeeper, later became head bookkeeper and supervisor. Since the utility started using IBM bookkeeping machines in the early 1930's, his work has involved their installation and use.

Past director and member of the Rogers Park Lions club, Mr. Fritzsche is also affiliated with Integrity lodge, A.F. & A.M., and the Edison Camera and Garden clubs. He and his wife, Frances, moved to their Palatine home from Rogers Park last year. They have two married sons, Edward, who works for Edison's Chicago North power sales department, and Robert, an employee of Superior Engraving Company in Chicago.

Traveling, fishing, gardening and photography are Mr. Fritzsche's favorite hobbies. He is looking forward to a vacation trip to the west and a fishing trip next fall.

New Credit Plates For Shell Customers

Wrestling with the cumbersome mechanics of credit card operation, Shell Oil Company has announced a ne wstreamlining project designed to cut the frequency of credit card renewals.

All Shell credit card customers, Underwood said will be issued plastic holders embossed with the customer's name and account number. Shell stations throughout the nation will be equipped with automatic imprinters to fit the format of the holder. Recording the transaction will simply be a matter of slipping the holder with an invoice slip into the printer and pulling the lever. Currently this is a handwritten operation.

The new system will go into effect October 31. (BB

Name Arlington Men To Top Posts With Railroad

Two executives of the North Western railway who make their nomes in Arlington Heights have been appointed to top posts in the road's accounting department at Chicago as assistant comptrollers.

The appointments were made in a streamlining of the railway's accounting department under Larry S. Provo, 29-year-old vice president and comptroller.

The two are Charles H. O'Hearn of 829 N. Dunton, and Frank K. Hauff of 924 North Highland. Both are veterans of the road's accounting department.

O'HEARN, 52, has been appointed assistant comptroller — systems and procedures, assigned to further modernizing the railway's vast accounting work. Electronic machines are already employed in many accounting functions of the road.

A native of St. Paul, Minn., O'Hearn started with North Western there in 1920 as a clerk with the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railway Company, a subsidiary. He became traveling auditor, auditor passenger accounts, and auditor disbursements before joining the North Western at Chicago in 1947 as auditor capital expenditures.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Hearn have lived in Arlington Heights since 1948 and are members of St. James church. Two sons, Charles and John, live at St. Paul.

HAUFF, 42, a 1st lieutenant in the transportation corps in World War II, and formerly assistant auditor freight accounts, has been appointed assistant comptroller — revenues and disbursements.

Already a veteran of 27 years with the road, Hauff entered the business world at the age of fifteen. He lost his father at an early age, and young Hauff became an office boy in C&NW's accounting department after only a year of high school. His mother supported the family, and he reasoned "she had worked long enough." He later completed high school and 5 years of college study at night schools.

Hauff served as traveling auditor and manager of the accounting department's machine service bureau before his appointment as assistant car accountant in 1951. In 1954 he was made assistant auditor freight accounts.

Margo Hauff, 10, entering junior high school this fall, along with Mrs. Hauff, complete the young executive's family. The Hauffs have lived in Arlington Heights since 1945.

Fills 100,000th Prescription Since '41

Joe Lohr passed a milestone in his drug career Tuesday, July 31, when he filled the 100,000th prescription since opening his own drug store in Arlington Heights.

Joe started his own business as Lohr's Pharmacy at 24 E. Northwest hwy. in 1941, after working for other druggists for many years. He bought the location of Wendt Drug Store, and has twice remodeled his store since as the community grew.

When Susan Leiher, 418 W. Campbell, ordered a prescription July 31, Joe numbered it 100,000.

BAPTISMS ENGAGEMENTS ANNIVERSARIES

MARIANNE SCOTT, Social Editor

Carmeline Des Parte, James Intravartolo Wed

In an 11 a.m. mass in Our Lady of the Wayside church, Arlington Heights, Miss Carmeline Marie Des Parte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Des Parte, 2604 Campbell st., Rolling Meadows, and James John Intravartolo, son of Mrs. Eva Trava and John Intravartolo of Arlington Heights, were married July 21. Fr. O'Hare officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Altar vases of white carnations and pew markers of flowers, ribbons and leaves decorated the church. Organist was Mrs. Drolet and soloist was Mrs. Jack. Selections were "On This Day", "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white chantilly lace with panel of pleated net. The bodice of the gown was made with shirred sleeves with scalloped neckline She wore white lace gloves and carried a matching lace handkerchief. Her 4-tier veil was held in place with a tiara of pastel irridescent beading and she carried a bouquet of white baby orchids with yellow throats.

Carol Novak of Chicago was maid of honor and wore a light green lace sheath dress with net overskirt. Her headpiece was of irridescent beading in light green and she carried a bouquet of yellow carnations tied with a rust bow. Bridesmaid was Joanne Muska of Crystal Lake. Her gown and headpiece was identical to the maid of honor's gown and headpiece and her bouquet was of rust colored mums with a yellow bow.

Junior bridesmaid was the bride's 9-year-old sister, Arlene Des Parte, who wore a gown of yellow lace with net overskirt. Her flowers were yellow carnations with a rust bow. Michael Jaster, 5, of Arlington Heights, was ring bearer.

Best man was Herbert Van Driel of Neenah, Wis. and Clarence Getts of Arlington Heights, was usher.

Dinner was served at 7:30 p.m. in Arlington Heights VFW hall and wedding cake was served to 400 guests at 9:30 p.m. in the same hall. Mrs. Des Parte received the guests in a light pink lace sheath dress. She also wore patent shoes and a picture hat in black. Mrs. Trava wore a print dress of avocado, brown and blue with avocado shoes. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Mr. Intravartolo and his bride are now residing at 18 E. Northwest hwy. Arlington Heights, after a week's honeymoon trip to the Wisconsin Dells. The bride was graduated from St. Philomena high school in Chicago and studied at De Paul university and Wright junior college. She is employed as a private secretary in a La Salle st. office. Her bridegroom was graduated from Arlington Heights high school and is employed by Northern Illinois Gas Co.

Favorites For Flavor

"Versatile" is an apt description of the excellent coffee cake recipe we are featuring this week.

It is being shared with us by Mrs. Richard C. Kurch, who has been making it for years with countless variations.

Easy to prepare, the basic yeast dough requires no beating or kneeding. And the cake itself is rich and light-textured.

The quantity of dough is enough for 4 round 9-inch coffee cakes or 2 large ones. The dough may be stored in the refrigerator for several days, and fresh coffee cakes can be baked as needed.

You can make streussel coffee cakes, or you can sprinkle the top of the cake with a mixture of cinnamon and sugar or chopped nuts.

Any number of fruit coffee cakes can be prepared: peach, apricot, plum, strawberry, blueberry, etc. You can also use prepared cherry pie fillings.

Another variation which Mrs. Kurth likes is grated apple with a streussel topping.

You may use a streussel topping over the other fruit cakes, if desired, with a thin powdered sugar icing dribbled over the top.

There are an infinite number of variations to this cake, and you'll enjoy using your imagination to please your family with a coffee cake - using their favorite fruit.

So many of Mrs. Kurth's friends and neighbors have enjoyed this coffee cake that she now bakes them to sell to others.

Outside of her family, Mrs. Kurth's primary interests are food and nursing.

As chairman of catering service for St. Mark's church, she plans the menu for wedding receptions and church dinners.

She is also a member of the Mt. Prospect Nurses club, the PTA and St. Marks church Guild.

The Kurths live at 408 N. Fairview in Mt. Prospect. They have 3 children: Stephen, 14, Karen, 13, and Cathy, 6.

Coffee Cake

¾ cup milk
3 eggs
¼ cup tepid water
2 ounces moist yeast or 2 packages dry yeast
Pinch of sugar
1 cup butter or margarine
4 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt

Scald milk. Add sugar and cool. Dissolve yeast and pinch of sugar in water. Let rise until double in bulk.

Mix butter, flour and salt together with your hands or a pastry blender (as you would for pie dough) and set aside.

To cooled milk add 3 whole eggs. Beat well. Fold in yeast mixture. Pour over dry mixture and stir just until well-moistened.

Place in refrigerator for an hour or two. (Will keep in refrigerator for several days, if desired.)

Grease well two large tins, 10½ x 15½ inches, or four 9-inch round tins.

Place dough in pans, cover, and let rise until double in bulk, about 1½ hours.

Place streussel topping on cakes, or cover with fruit, or use a combination of both.

(Mrs. Kurth prefers making fruit cakes in the small tins and streussel in large ones.)

Streussel Topping

1 cup flour
½ cup butter or margarine
1½ cups sugar
Cinnamon (optional)

Mix ingredients with your hands or a pastry blender. Sprinkle over cake.

Bake plain streussel cake for 20 minutes in 375 degree oven.

Bake fruit cakes 25 to 30 minutes in 375 degree oven.

(Pecan rolls can also be made using this recipe. Keep dough in refrigerator overnight before rolling out.)

Janet Hassell Marries Charles J. Simonsen

White tapers and large baskets of white glamelia, stephanotis and gladioli with English ivy decorated St. John Episcopal church in Mt. Prospect for the 8:30 p.m. service July 21 in which Miss Janet Lee Hassel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Hassell, 819 Bristol lane, Arlington Heights, and Charles Jay Simonsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Simonsen of Sioux Rapids, Iowa, were united in marriage.

The Rev. Grosvenor M. Needham officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of pure silk white taffeta with low rounded neck and long fitted sleeves buttoned at the wrist. The bodice of her gown was fitted and scalloped insets of plaiting trimmed the bodice and the skirt. The skirt ended in a long train and a beaded cap held her fingertip illusion veil. Her bridal bouquet was of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Helen Barbara Hassell was her sister's maid of honor and wore a white lace gown over aqua taffeta. She wore matching aqua pumps and bandeau and her flowers were a spray of pink carnations with English ivy.

Joan Bailey of Sioux Rapids, Donna Wright of River Forest and Karen Kruger of Minneapolis, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor's gown.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hassell wore a pale blue lace gown over blue taffeta with matching shoes. She wore a beaded peach hat and matching gloves with an orchid corsage. Beige lace over beige taffeta was the choice of Mrs. Simonsen, mother of the bridegroom. She wore beige accessories and both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Raymond Wiley of Des Moines was best man and ushers were Thomas Sharpe of Carroll, Iowa, Albert Gilbert of Mason City, Iowa and D. Peter Wahl of Victor, Iowa.

One hundred sixty-five guests attended the wedding reception held in the Pantry, Park Ridge, after which the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to Baileys Harbor in northern Wisconsin. Since August 1 they have been at home in Lima, Ohio where the bride and bridegroom are employed by Westinghouse Electrical Corp. They both graduated from Iowa State college this June.

Preview Agenda Items For LWV

The League of Women Voters is conducting summer workshops in order to preview agenda items which will be more fully studied this coming season. Members are discussing issues pertaining to the village manager form of government, the national water supply and the revenue article to be voted upon in the November election.

Next workshop on village management will be held at 8 p.m. August 29, at the home of the local agenda chairman, Mrs. Stephen Jurco, 217 Windsor dr., Arlington Heights.

The league plans to have a voters service booth at the 4-H fair. Information on registration, voting procedures, and current legislation issues will be available to the public.

Nancy Luga Becomes Bride Of Ens. Clarbour

Sometime after September 1, Ens. and Mrs. Bert Clarbour will be residing in Honolulu, Hawaii, where Ens. Clarbour will be on the Naval commandants staff for 2 years. Ens. Clarbour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Clarbour, 41 S. Chestnut ave., Arlington Heights, took Miss Nancy Luga, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steven W. Luga of Elmwood Park, as his bride in a double ring ceremony June 23.

The service was held in Elmwood Park Presbyterian church with the Rev. S. C. Jepson officiating. Floral arrangements of white peonies, stock and gladioli decorated the altar and nuptial selections were "Ich Liebe Dich" and "O Perfect Love."

For her marriage the bride wore a full-length gown of Italian raw silk fashioned with short train, long princess torso and scalloped neckline. She carried white glamellias centered with pink roses. She was given in marriage by her father.

Lucy Rohr was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Donita Corneils, Joan Borovec and Joan Schmidel. Miss Rohr's gown was in rose polished cotton made princess style, while the bridesmaids were in light pink polished cotton, fashioned identically to the maid of honor's gown. All attendants carried crescent bouquets of deep red peonies.

Blue lace over blue taffeta was chosen by the bride's mother for the wedding. She also wore light blue accessories and a white orchid wore a beige lace dress over beige taffeta and also a white orchid corsage.

Carl Bornholt, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Frank LaPorte, Dick Maxwell, also a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, Frank Luga, brother of the bride and Ralph and Roger Clarbour, brothers of the bridegroom, were ushers.

A reception for 150 guests followed the 4 o'clock ceremony. It was held in the Ranger restaurant, Chicago, with dinner for the immediate relatives and the bridal party immediately preceding the reception.

The couple honeymooned in the western states, Colorado Springs, Grand Canyon, Boulder Dam and San Francisco until July 5 when Ens. Clarbour left for Honolulu. The new Mrs. Clarbour departed from San Francisco last week for Honolulu. She was graduated from Northern Illinois State college at DeKalb where she was affiliated with Delta Zeta sorority. Ens. Clarbour was graduated from the University of Illinois and was a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Garden Club To Hold Last Summer Meeting In Park Forest

The Garden Club of Illinois will hold its final summer meeting August 13 in Park Forest. A luncheon will take place at noon at Mickelberry's, from where a shuttle service will be provided for a tour of village gardens. In the event of rain, slides of these gardens will be shown at Mickleberry's.

Acreage in Park Forest is allotted free to those having gardening as a hobby. The village of 27,000 is located west of Chicago Heights, 1 mile south of the junction of Western and Lincoln.

Reservations for the meeting should be made by August 9 with Mrs. Charles M. Albright, 453 Saugatuck, Park Forest.

Director Takes Bride On July 8

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Stutzman have recently returned from a wedding trip in Madison. The couple married July 8 in Palatine Methodist church with the Rev. Hugh Morris of Arlington Heights Methodist church officiating. The double ring ceremony took place at 10 a.m. and dinner was served to the wedding guests at Brandt's restaurant in Palatine.

The bride is the former Mrs. Nina T. Hamrick, music and English teacher in Jamaica, Ill. high school. She was attended by her daughter, Kathryn Hamrick of Champaign.

Mr. Stutzman, athletic director of Palatine high school, was attended by his son, Byron.

The couple is temporarily now residing at 270 N. Smith st., Palatine.

KRAUSE & KEHE

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS
OLDEST AND MOST RESPECTED REALTOR

Wouldn't you like a beautiful 6 room Brick Ranch located on a large corner lot, where the traffic is light so the kids can romp and play? Here is a typical Krause & Kehe value. 3 large bedrooms, the master bedroom has Mr. and Mrs. sliding door closets. Tiled bath with vanity sink. Lovely kitchen with birch cabinets and large dining area adjoining. Bright, cheerful living room that has Thermo-Pane windows. Two-car garage, full basement. Lots of shade trees on the property. Home only two years old. Included in the price are beautiful draperies and comb. storms and screens. Grade school, high school and new shopping center within walking distance. We know you'll like this home and we are proud to offer it, for only

$26,750

There is always something so pleasant about a Cape Cod home, and here is one of sturdy brick construction. Master bedroom exceptionally large and the second bedroom is more than ample. Youngstown kitchen that is cheerful and airy. This one has a full basement and a two-car garage. Ribbon driveway. Dining room separated from living room which has a large picture window. Yes, this home has gas heat. Possession Sept. 1 and carpeting, storms and screens are included in this very reasonable price.

$19,500

This is our day for Cape Cods and here is another beauty. 3 nice bedrooms, one upstairs, with a fourth bedroom unfinished. None of this dining in the living room as it is separate. Nice cabinet kitchen which embraces a pleasant breakfast room. Garage and full basement. Exceptionally large lot and landscaped by someone with an eye for beauty. This home is constructed of brick and included in the price are Venetian Blinds and Storms and Screens. For what is offered in this home and property the price is amazingly low. Possession arranged to suit both parties, offered now for

In-The-Row Weeds Cut 'Bean Yields

IN THE ROW WEEDS — GOTHIC

In the row weeds can cut soybean yields as much as 10 per cent.

Fred Slife, weed control specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, reports that work by the U. S. department of agriculture and Iowa State college since 1951 has shown how expensive weeds can be in soybean fields.

In the tests scientists planted such typical weeds as yellow foxtail, velvet leaf and Pennsylvania smartweed along with the Hawkeye variety of soybean. The weeds were planted singly and in combination in the row with the soybeans and were then thinned to strands of 3, 6 and 12 weeds in each foot of row. The weeds were then removed at half a dozen specific intervals during the growth of the soybeans.

RESULTS showed that soybean yields were cut in proportion to the amount of weed growth. The combined above ground growth of soybeans and weeds was about the same as the above ground growth of the weed-free soybeans.

Presence of weeds delayed maturity of beans about one day, decreased the height of soybean plants about two inches and increased lodging of the soybean plants about 2 to 6 per cent, Slife says.

Weather is an important factor in soybean production. In dry years weeds did not have much effect on soybean yields. But in years with plenty of moisture the weeds tended to cut soybean yields most late in the season. On the average, the effect began early in the season and progressed to cause greater yield reductions as the soybean crop matured.

Up And Doing 4-H Holds Achievement Day In Lutheran School

Up and Doing 4-H club held its local achievement meeting July 11 in St. John Lutheran school. During the forenoon, various crafts and works of the members were displayed in the basement recreation rooms.

Judging took place in the afternoon with Mrs. Foss, Mrs. Moller and Mrs. Scharringhausen as judges. Following the meeting, members met at the home of Sharon Luczak for a swimming party.

July 25, members had a get-together at the home of Charlotte Keller where they swam and enjoyed barbecues amid a setting of Chinese lanterns. Members also had an outing at Cedar Lake August 2.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to the Illinois Constitution will be submitted on a separate blue ballot to the electors of the State of Illinois for adoption or rejection at the General Election to be held on November 6, 1956.

REVENUE AMENDMENT
Article IX

Sec. 1. The General Assembly may define and classify property for taxation, but all such definitions and classifications shall be reasonable and be based solely on the nature and characteristics of the property and not on the nature, characteristics, residence or business of the owner or the amount or number owned. All real estate shall constitute one class, except that lands used for forestry purposes and mineral rights in land may be classified separately. If any class of property is taxed by valuation, such tax shall be uniform as to the class.

Sec. 2. The General Assembly may levy or authorize the levy of such other kinds of taxes as it may deem necessary, which shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, but shall not levy or authorize the levy of a graduated income tax.

Sec. 3. The property of the State, counties and other municipal corporations, both real and personal, and such other property, or part thereof, as may be owned by, or held in trust for, agricultural or horticultural societies, non-profit hospitals or schools, religious institutions, cemeteries, or charitable institutions and used exclusively for one or more of such purposes, may be exempted from taxation; but such exemption shall be only by general law. In the assessment of real estate incumbered by public easement, any depreciation occasioned by such easement may be deducted in the valuation of such property. This section shall not deprive the General Assembly of power to classify property for taxation as provided in section 1 of this Article.

Sec. 9. The General Assembly may vest the corporate authorities of cities, towns and villages with power to make local improvements by special assessment, or by special taxation on contiguous property, or otherwise. For all other corporate purposes, all municipal corporations may be vested with authority to levy and collect taxes subject to the restrictions of sections 1 and 2 of this Article.

Sec. 10. The General Assembly shall not impose taxes upon municipal corporations, or the inhabitants or property thereof, for corporate purposes, but shall require the corporate authorities to levy taxes for the payment of liabilities incurred under authority of law. Private property shall not be liable to be taken or sold for the payment of the corporate liabilities of a municipal corporation.

Section 13 of Article 9 of this Constitution is repealed.

Form of Ballot

The proposed amendment to Article IX will appear upon the constitution ballot in the following form:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 1, 2, 3, 9, and 10 of ARTICLE IX AND FOR THE REPEAL OF SECTION 13 OF ARTICLE IX
(Revenue Amendment)

Explanation of Amendment

This amendment would revise Section 1 of Article IX of the State Constitution so as to permit the General Assembly to classify property for tax purposes, subject to the following restriction: (1) the classifications are to be based on the nature and characteristics of the property and not on the nature, characteristics, residence or business of the owner or the amount or number owned; (2) all real estate is to constitute one class, except that lands used for forestry purposes and mineral rights in land may each be classified separately; and (3) if any class of property is taxed by valuation, such tax is to be uniform as to the class.

This amendment would also revise and simplify Section 2 of Article IX, dealing with the levy of miscellaneous types of taxes, but would require such taxes to be uniform as to the same class of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax. The levy of a graduated income tax would be forbidden.

Other changes are merely routine. This amendment revises Section 3 to require ownership or its equivalent—and not mere use—as a basis for exemption of charitable, religious, and other similar property from taxation. In addition, non-profit hospitals would be added to the list of institutions and purposes for which the General Assembly may grant tax exemption by general law.

Sections 9 and 10 would be revised to subject the taxing powers of cities and other local governments to the same restrictions as apply to the General Assembly. The language in regard to obligations of these governments would be broadened, requiring them to levy taxes not merely—as now—for "debts contracted" but rather for "liabilities incurred."

This amendment would, in addition, repeal obsolete Section 13, which was adopted in 1890 to authorize the corporate authorities of Chicago to issue Columbian Exposition bonds.

Yes	For the proposed amendment to Sections 1, 2, 3, 9, and 10 of Article IX of the Constitution and for the repeal of Section 13 of Article IX of the Constitution (Revenue Amendment).

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

I, CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State of the State of Illinois, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the proposed amendment and the form in which said amendment will appear upon a separate blue ballot at the General Election to be held on the Sixth day of November, A. D., 1956, pursuant to Senate Joint Resolution No. 16, Senate Joint Resolution No. 30, and Senate Joint Resolution No. 32 of the Sixty-ninth General Assembly, the originals of which are on file in this office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and affix the Great Seal of the State of Illinois. Done at my office in the Capitol Building, in the city of Springfield, this 10th day of January A. D. 1956, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and eightieth.

Proper Care Cuts Refrigeration Cost

You can cut the cost of operating a refrigeration unit in half, in some cases, by giving it proper care.

Robert M. Peart of the agricultural engineering department at the University of Illinois college of agriculture offers these tips on how to care for your unit to make it run cheaper, last longer and do a better job of cooling.

YOUR refrigerator or freezer has a condenser coil or warm coil outside the box. This coil gives off heat taken from inside the box. This warm coil probably looks something like a radiator, and it's usually located near the floor, with a fan to pull air through it.

To clean lint and dust out of the warm coil so that the heat can pass off use a vacuum cleaner with a brush attachment. Put a few drops of oil on the fan once a year. The warm coil on your refrigerator probably is located where it won't need much attention.

THE COLD coil or evaporation coil is inside the freezer or refrigerator. Defrost when the layer of frost gets half an inch thick. If you don't, the box will run continuously and never reach the proper temperature because frost acts as insulation.

On your air-conditioning unit the warm coil is outside the window. Usually it will not collect enough dust or dirt to affect its operation. To keep the air moving across both coils, give the 2 fan motors a few drops of oil each year and keep the filter clean or change it regularly. (Fm

Wheat Allotment For Farms Without Wheat For Past 3 Years

Farmers on land on which no wheat was seeded for grain for any of the years 1954, 1955, and 1956, may apply for a 1957 wheat acreage allotment to Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the Cook County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee.

To be considered for an allotment on a farm which had no wheat seeded for grain for any of those years, the farmer must apply in writing to his county ASC committee by August 31, 1956.

Blank application forms are available at the county ASC office for use in filing requests for allotments. (Fm

Record Cow

A registered Guernsey cow, Valleyland Paulette, owned by Gertrude McNaught, Elgin, has completed an official production record in the Advanced Registry division of the American Guernsey Cattle club.

This record was for 16,860 pounds of milk and 772 pounds of fat, which is equal to 7900 quarts of high-quality milk.

"Paulette" was an eight year-old, met calving requirements, and was milked two times daily for 365 days while on test.

This official production record was supervised by University of Illinois. (Fm

Wahoo Almanac

Most trees are farmers' almanacs in reverse. You can trace through the growth rings of a tree dry years and wet years. This variation in growth is what makes wood so beautiful. Lumber like Douglas fir and west coast hemlock gets its matchless beauty, charm, texture and grain from the irregularity of its long years of growth. Wounds heal into striking individual marks in a panel board. No other building material equals wood for its incomparable beauty and its wide variation of natural design. (G
